Thousands Lose Homes As Flood Hits California

THREE-DAY rainfall causes flood conditions in sections of northern and central California. Hundreds of families, including this one, were evacuated by firemen and national guardsmen as the waters threatened their homes. This picture was taken at Pescadero, Cal., as a fireman, right, helped Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thomas remove their small son to safety.

Upper Sacramento Valley Devastated; Many Acres Inundated, Bridges And Houses Wiped Out; More Levees May Break

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 29—More than 4,000 persons were known to be homeless today in what authorities estimated to be the most devastating flood in the history of northern California.

Greatest havoc was along the Upper Sacramento Valley. The Sacramento River and its tributaries burst their banks in several sections and deluged thousands of acres, washing out bridges and houses. Many families were forced to swim to safety. Much livestock was lost.

FRENCH PREPARE TO ISSUE BREAD RATIONING CARD

PARIS, Feb. 29—Bread rationing cards will be issued in France shortly, the newspaper Paris Soir predicted today as the Chamber of Deputies began its debate on the nation's agricultural resources.

"The agricultural debate will result in a decision to issue bread cards," the paper stated. "There is plenty of wheat but fewer bakers."

Paris Soir also said that pastry shops will be closed two days a week and that army leaves will be extended to all farmers.

NORTHERN PORT OF MURMANSK UNDER SOLDIERS

LONDON, Feb. 29—Outbreak of disorders in the northern Soviet port of Murmansk has caused authorities there to enforce martial law, according to reports circulated in London today.

Reuters (British) news agency reported that the Finnish radio claimed martial law was put in force in Murmansk and other Soviet frontier towns. In addition, said the report, a curfew has been clamped down from midnight to 5 a. m.

Special detachments of police were said to have been rushed into the trouble zone.

Cash from State Eases Relief Task

SURPRISE CHECK FOR $8,159 AIDS COUNTY CRISIS

High Expenses In January, Anticipated February Costs Cited

BONDS TO BE RETIRED

General Fund To Be Left Unbothered As Result Of Distribution

What a few days ago appeared to be a dismal outlook for the relief situation in Pickaway County with the retirement of $13,357 in relief notes due March 1, has suddenly brightened with the arrival of checks from the state auditor carrying an unexpected $8,159 from the one percent public utilities excise tax fund.

Darkening the financial horizon of the county relief was the fact that costs for the month of January leaped to $9,174 for the city of Circleville and Pickaway County which are combined under one relief administration. It is also expected that the cost of relief for February will exceed the $10,500 mark.

Funds from the state amounting to $8,696 to match the county costs left a balance of $5,477 of which Circleville owes 42 percent or $2,333.

Outlook Was Dark
Until the sudden windfall, money to replenish the relief fund was not in sight until September since all incoming revenue would have had to be used for the retirement of the relief notes that were issued in August and December of 1939.

Notes amounting to $13,357 were issued with the approval of the county commissioners in August. (Continued on Page Two)

European Bulletins

LONDON—The borders of Belgium facing both France and Germany will be closed from tomorrow onward, it was reported in a Reuter dispatch from Brussels today.

BERLIN—German U-boat Commander Werner Hartmann returned to his home base today with an announcement he had sunk 45,000 tons of enemy shipping, bringing his own total of successes to 80,000 tons.

HELSINKI—Since outbreak of the Russo-Finnish war the Russians have lost 1,210 tanks and 530 warplanes, it was estimated officially in Helsinki today. Reports received at the Finnish capital said that many of the Russian planes shot down were armed with new American-made machine guns.

BRUSSELS, Belgium—A lone German plane flew over the region of Gand today, dropping propaganda leaflets. Anti-aircraft batteries failed to score a hit.

TEACHER IN SCHOOL FOR BOYS TO FACE COMPLAINT

CINCINNATI, Feb. 29—Juvenile court officials today investigated the claim of a 14-year-old boy that he had been beaten cruelly at Glenview School.

The boy remained in Juvenile Detention Place on orders of Judge Charles W. Hoffman. The judge said Samuel H. Gray, cottage master at the school for delinquent boys, admitted striking the boy with his fist and whipping him after the boy had proven to be a persistent trouble-maker.

KERMIT ROOSEVELT TALKS WITH BRIT WAR OFFICE ABOUT ASSISTING FINNS

LONDON, Feb. 29—Major Kermit Roosevelt, son of the late President Theodore Roosevelt, conferred with British war office authorities today, presumably regarding plans to command the international volunteer brigade of the Finnish army.

Roosevelt, who joined the British army shortly after outbreak of the European war, declined to make any statement regarding his plans. The Finnish Aid Bureau in London yesterday announced that he had applied for permission to resign his commission in the British army, to accept command of Finland's international brigade. It was learned that Roosevelt probably will not go to Finland for some time. His health was described as indifferent following an attack of grippe and a throat infection.

SENATE RUSHES FINN AID VOTE

$40,000,000 To Be Spent In Scandinavian Land And In China

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—Congress today sent to the White House for President Roosevelt's signature legislation permitting a $20,000,000 non-military loan to Finland. Congressional action was completed when the senate concurred in house amendments barring any loans to nations that are still defaulted on war debts.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—The senate in a burst of speed today rushed action on legislation that will place 40,000,000 American dollars at the side of Finnish and Chinese troops fighting to repulse invasion of their countries.

As President Roosevelt ploughed through southern seas on his way back to the capital from a vacation, Senate Majority Leader Barkley of Kentucky announced that action on the Finnish-Chinese loan bill, passed by the house yesterday, will be completed "at once—today."

Mr. Roosevelt, it was known, will sign the bill into law almost immediately on his return. Thus, $20,000,000 loans will be made available to both Finland and China for purchase of non-military goods. (Continued on Page Two)

G. O. P. TO MAKE CENSUS 'SNOOP' CAMPAIGN ISSUE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—The mounting torrent of congressional mail "from the people" protesting alleged census-snooping has provoked consideration by the Republican party high command of the possibility that the issue might profitably be made campaign ammunition, it was learned today.

G.O.P. leaders in house and senate have been advised that the Republican "strategy circle" is watching the census-snooping controversy, originally agitated by Senator Charles W. Tobey of New Hampshire, very closely.

Tobey, who has bitterly denounced inclusion of questions relating to income in the 1940 decennial census that will begin April 1, disclosed that he alone has received more than 4,000 letters, from Democrats as well as Republicans, supporting his stand.

"That kind of mail isn't to be sneezed at," was the spoken attitude of one G.O.P. leader. Even the Democrats agreed with him.

VIBORG DISTRICT STANDS

Drive Across Ice Expected To Be Started Soon By Moscow Command

HELSINKI, Feb. 29—Between 25 and 30 Soviet divisions—more than half a million men—were reported attacking Finnish defense positions on the Carelian Isthmus today in a gigantic attempt to turn the Mannerheim Line and capture Viborg.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The London Daily Express reported from Helsinki that strict censorship has been imposed by authorities in the Finnish capital since 10 p. m. Wednesday.)

Military dispatches to Helsinki stated that Russian pressure against the western part of the Mannerheim Line and also in the direction of Viborg, Finland's second city which now lies in ruins, has been vastly increased in the last 24 hours.

There was nothing in the reports from the battle zone, however, to indicate that the Russians have broken through the main Finnish defenses, but it was clear that a desperate battle is in progress.

Flanking Attempt Made
As far as could be ascertained, the Russians appeared to be devoting tremendous efforts to an attempt to outflank the entire Mannerheim Line. (Continued on Page Two)

'SMEAR' HOOVER CAMPAIGN GAINS IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—A "smear Hoover" campaign, initiated by a group of inside New Dealers for the purpose of driving FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, into private life, today provoked serious concern on Capitol Hill.

The goal of the "smear Hoover" movement is to obtain control of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and turn it into a political gashouse prior to the presidential election, International News Service was told by a high New Dealer who sides with the chief G-man.

Thomas G. Corcoran, New Deal brain-truster, is reported to be the "brains" of the drive against Hoover. He is said to be nursing a long-time animosity for him.

The "plot" against the chief G-man was described by the Hoover New Dealer in these words:

"A small group of New Dealers have turned the character assassination on J. Edgar Hoover for the express purpose of driving him (Continued on Page Two)

British Navy Quits Scapa Flow

GREAT Britain has abandoned Scapa Flow as a naval base, as a result of submarine attacks on British warships there. Map shows the present naval bases of the British Isles. Inset is Captain Pien, commander of the German submarine which torpedoed and sank H. M. S. Royal Oak, British battleship, in Scapa Flow. Pien is thus individually responsible, to a degree, for the move.

NEW 'SPOTTER' ADDED TO BRIT ISLES DEFENSES

LONDON, Feb. 29—A highly secret new robot artillery "spotter" is Great Britain's latest contribution to the war's surprise weapons.

The new device, now being turned out in large quantities as rapidly as possible in anticipation of a German spring offensive, is expected to be brought into play when large scale artillery duels begin on the Western Front. Military experts predict the robot will largely outmode the World War stationary sausage balloon and will compete successfully with the reconnaissance plane.

The robot can detect the location of an enemy battery almost instantaneously, accurately charting its position for counter artillery fire.

The robot is called a "sound-ranger." It locates and computes an opposing battery by sound waves actuating a hyper-sensitive and complicated electrical apparatus.

Can Spot Battery
It can "spot" a single battery, although many other batteries may be firing in the vicinity, and works even amid the tremendous and complicated concatenation of front line operation.

The total pitch of the particular enemy battery is picked up by two sound-ranging microphones. The sound waves are automatically changed to electrical waves and transmitted with the velocity of light. (Continued on Page Two)

LONDONERS SAY BRITISH EMPIRE IS NOT FOR SALE

LONDON, Feb. 29—The resolution of Senator Robert Reynolds for purchase of Bermuda by the United States through partial liquidation of the British debt drew this retort today from informed circles in London:

"The British Empire is not for sale or barter."

LEAP DAY BABY BORN AT GEORGE GIFFIN'S HOME

Circleville got itself a "29er" Thursday and Dr. Edward L. Montgomery was on hand to welcome her.

It was 1:30 a. m. when she arrived, weighing five and three-quarter pounds. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Giffin, Maplewood Avenue.

Nothing has been decided concerning her name, but indications are that she will be known as Patricia Eileen and will have all the right in the world to ask some young man several years hence to be not so shy. After all she was born on Leap Day of Leap Year and she will celebrate her first birthday in 1944.

AID FOR POLES NEARS, HOOVER TELLS SOLONS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—Former President Herbert Hoover today told the house foreign affairs committee that an agreement is expected to be reached between the Allies and Germany within the next few weeks which will enable America to go to the aid of stricken Polish people.

In a surprise appearance, Hoover went before the committee to testify in support of pending legislation authorizing appropriations up to $20,000,000 for the relief of victims in the conquered nation.

Because of a shortage of food between now and the next harvest in Polish territory, "there probably will be 7,000,000 people in need of food," Hoover asserted, and it will take between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 to feed them.

Polish relief has been difficult to administer, he said, because the Allies have been fearful that any food sent in will be used by Germans, while Germany has been equally jealous over the problem. Hoover asserted that efforts have been made to reach an agreement with both sides.

"While I cannot say that we have reached an agreement, we hope to in the next few weeks," he added.

WELLES' VISIT BRINGS RUMORS OF NEW POLICY

Editorial In Influential Publication Sets Up Three Proposals

SECURE PEACE CITED

Mutual Cooperation Among Small Countries Listed As One Factor

BERLIN, Feb. 29—Germany's determination to apply the Monroe Doctrine principle to Central Europe and effect a system of cooperation "guaranteeing the freedom and independence of small states" will be stressed to United States Under Secretary of State Sumner Welles when he arrives in Berlin tomorrow.

This was the impression given today by a singular and obviously inspired editorial in the influential newspaper Boersen Zeitung which compared Germany's present position to that of the American colonies when they fought for independence from England.

The Nazi "Monroe Doctrine" idea has been enunciated before, but the editorial's appearance just before Welles' visit was regarded as highly significant.

Three "Guarantees"
Under the signature of Karl Megeries and entitled "Living Spaces", the editorial set forth what were described as the three principles of German "Lebensraum":

- 1.—A warless and secure peace.
2. A practicable and sound regional European organization.
- 3.—Common and mutual cooperation among all nations of Europe by which the freedom and independence of small states will be guaranteed.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: In his last speech at Munich on Saturday, Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler announced Germany's firm determination to hold on to Poland, Czechoslovakia and Austria, and announced that all territories in Central Europe "built by Germans" logically belonged to the Reich.)

RUSSIANS WARN POWERFUL SHIPS BEING READIED

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 29—Russia's naval fleets soon will be enlarged by new type fighting ships, "the like of which has never been seen anywhere," according to a Moscow radio broadcast today.

It stated the Soviets now are constructing cruisers and large destroyers which, it was claimed, will be capable of speeds of about 42 m. p. h.

Russia's Black Sea, Pacific, Polar, Baltic and Atlantic fleets will be increased, the radio announcement said.

Bachelors' Alliance Bobs Up Anew as Defense Against Leap Day Becomes Necessity; Many Eligibles Listed

This story is for ladies, only! And only for single ladies who are well aware that this day, February 29, 1940, gives them an opportunity to cast custom aside and tie into themselves a husband. Yea, verily, this day coming but once in four years is known as Leap Day, and, if the boy friend has become a little backward about offering the band for the proper finger, there isn't a thing wrong with you taking the problem on your shoulders and going about the task of leading one of these "young" fellows altarward.

Literally, the words (be it Knight's, or Hitler's, or Ruggles') is full of bounding bachelors who just can't seem to be induced to take the duties of matrimony on themselves. Maybe, just maybe, this Amalgamated Protective Alliance of Circleville Bachelors has something to do with the abundance of "free" youngsters. This Alliance which has been in existence for a good many years, bobs up just about this time each four years.

In 1936 little was heard of the Alliance, but in 1932 it was quite active. Because of the inactivity the Alliance lost many of its members in 1936 and nearby years, but organizers of the Alliance feel that something should be done about the high rate of "mortality" that has crept into its ranks.

Although activities of the organization are kept very secret, word has leaked out that the Alliance's meeting will be held in the basement of Will Hamilton's store sometime during the next 24 hours.

Will was a member of the original Amalgamated Alliance, and many who have only recently qualified for membership regard him as their "Fuehrer". Of course, there are many others who have been members since way back when, among them being John Ryan, Howard Sweetman, Max C. Seyfert, Jr., Elliott Voll, Joe M. Lynch, Harry Well, Mack Parrett, Jr., Milton E. Friedman, Eliot Henry, Samuel Joseph, Frank L. Howard, William McLaughlin, Homer Walters, Tommy Young, Harry (Chic) Howard, and others too numerous to mention.

Weaver Next On List
If Hamilton should decline nomination for another term as Chief Bachelor, rumor has it that Earl Weaver, deputy sheriff and one of the most affirmed members of the organization, will be asked to don the gown. Morris Boggs would be his right bower, with Sam Joseph and Phil Welmer (Damon and Pythias) as chief keepers of the door.

A good many of the "men about town" have abandoned the ranks of the Alliance since the last organization meeting in 1932. Some of them, who swore in 1932 that they would remain true, yea true, but to the Alliance and not to a wife, have tramped up the aisle. Among them are Vattier Courtwright, Paul Hohen Schleyer, Robert Maloney, George Groom, Car and Don Mason and Henry Joseph. The Alliance during the intervening eight years has suffered, too, from the refusal of many of the young fellows who became eligible during (Continued on Page Two) nerheim Line by crossing the ice of Viborg Bay.

Attempts of this nature resulted in heavy Russian casualties when Finnish bombing planes and artillery opened up on the Red army troops, smashing the ice and plunging the men into the frigid waters.

Nevertheless, according to advices received here, the Russians now are massing troops and artillery reinforcements at the western-most point of the front to support an anticipated drive across the ice.

All indications are that this maneuver will be tried by the Russians on a major scale in the immediate future and the Finns are rushing preparations to meet it.

Although there was no particular change in the situation on the Karelian Front this morning, Finnish authorities admitted the situation was grave in view of the violence of the Soviet onslaughts.

But it was claimed that the Finns have prevented any Soviet advances into the new, second-line Finnish positions. Likewise it was stated the Russians have so far been unable to move their artillery over the ice of Viborg Bay.

Officials said the Russian strategy is to outflank the Mannerheim Line at Viborg from the West and then "roll up the entire front."

Reds Lose 100,000?

Belief was expressed in Helsinki that the Russians have lost 100,000 men during their month-long offensive against the Mannerheim Line alone.

To meet the Russian drive against Viborg, the Finnish high command reinforced its troops defending the city.

Reports from the Far North indicated that the Russian drive in the Nautai Region was forcing the Finns backward and had compelled them to evacuate the village of Jordanfoss, which was completely wrecked before it was abandoned to the advancing Soviets.

Latest reports indicated that the Finns have withdrawn from the town of Nautai, about 70 miles south of Petsamo, to take up more strongly fortified positions to the rear.

Nautai Wrecked

At Nautai the Finns also left only charred and wrecked buildings to the Russians. It was expected that the Soviets will meet stubborn resistance when they attack the new Finnish defenses farther South.

VIC TO RETIRE, FRIENDS IN OHIO CAPITAL BELIEVE

COLUMBUS, Feb. 29—Unless he executes an abrupt about face from his position of the moment, it was believed today that U. S. Sen. Vic Donahey will shortly announce his retirement from politics.

Then senator, who has been in public life for 40 years, serving two terms as state auditor, three consecutive terms as governor and one term as senator, indicated in Washington that his plans for the future would be revealed over the week end.

Although President Roosevelt himself is reported to have twice asked Donahey to seek re-election to the senate, persons in Columbus who are very close to Donahey and in a position to know what he is thinking, firmly expect him to refuse to run again.

They said today that the red tape of the senate and the continual political pressure to which members are subjected by groups seeking to further their own interests, do not agree with the independent temperament of "Hon. Vic."

He wants to return to his family and the peace and quiet of his Indian Lake retreat, they added, and unless some unexpected development occurs within the next few days to cause him to change his mind, he will not be a candidate again.

gust, 1939 with the expectancy that this money would last until March, 1940. In December, however, it was found that that fund had been dissipated on relief needs and another note issue of $7,000 was offered. A further shortage for the month of February necessitated the transfer of $7,465 from the General Fund to the Relief Fund.

Faced with the note retirement date of March 1, the county auditor's office had decided to apply the Relief Fund balance of $8,100 plus the $7,726 which the county received Thursday from the state as its share of the distribution of the 65/100 percent public utilities excise tax, totaling $15,826, to retire the $13,357 of outstanding notes. This would have left a balance of $2,469 with the prospect of repaying the $7,000 notes in August.

Transfers Loomed

To repay the $7,000 note issue all funds that will be available to the county from the state distribution of the beer, malt and admission tax through August will have to be used for that purpose. The relief fund would then have had to be carried from transfers from the general fund. It was intimated by the auditor's office that a policy of economy would have to be instituted since a continuous policy of transfers would have dwindled that fund to the extent that the regular functions of county finance would be jeopardized.

The county draws an approximate average of $900 per month from the beer, malt and admission tax which is to be diverted to relief purposes. The application of the money for eight months, through August, would retire the $7,000 note issue leaving the relief fund in complete depletion.

The bolstering force which changed the picture was the arrival of the $8,159 from the one percent public utilities excise tax. In 1938 the legislature passed House Bill 501 which provided the one percent tax. Money was not collected under this tax until 1939 for distribution in 1940. The funds thus distributed are to be used in retirement of notes or bonds which were issued in anticipation of the distribution.

Since no such notes and bonds were distributed in anticipation of the one percent tax by the county the money is to be diverted to the Relief Fund bolstering it with the unlooked for $8,159. With an expected lightening of the relief load during the spring and summer relief operations can be maintained on that sum without throwing the General Fund into jeopardy.

A bill of $2,333 was sent by the county to the city as its share of the relief costs. Where this money will be obtained will be a question that will face the City Council at its next meeting since the relief funds have long since been exhausted and collections of city's General Fund have been lagging.

Bachelors' Union Bobs Up

Field Fertile One

The field of bachelors remains a fertile one, despite the inroads of the marriage vows, and herein are a few of the most eligible, barring, of course, those already mentioned. Some of the young fellows mentioned hereafter are on the verge of stepping off the brink of independence and into the ranks of those who can no longer be classified as members of the Amalgamated Protective Alliance of Circleville Bachelors.

A good place to start on any list would be in the Courthouse where are found Ned Dresbach, Robert Campbell, the aforesaid Mr. Weaver, Robert Adkins (but not for long) and George William Groom. All of these fellows (barring sudden changes in tenure of office) have pretty good jobs, so the young ladies who seek soul-mates could do much worse than enter your Courthouse.

Many May Be Plucked

But it isn't necessary to go to the Courthouse. My no! Here are some more of the eligibles, John and George Amner, Blenn D. Bales, Tom Brunner, Eddie Clark, John Clifton, Dick Cockerill, Earl Hussey, Arthur McGraw, George (Mellow) Davis, Charles Diehlman, Jr., Durward Dowden, the banker, George Lutz, the barrister, Earl A. Smith, Julius and Leon Gordon, Paul Wallace and Dean White, (don't overlook this pair, girls), McClure Hughes, Bill (Caravan) Kellstadt, Joe and Pat Kirwin.

AMSTERDAM—Heavy gunfire heard during the night off the Dutch Coast may have resulted from an engagement between British and German warships, it was believed in Amsterdam today. (An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam said the guns were fired in the course of Dutch naval exercises.)

CORDON BLOCKS RUSS PEASANTS FROM MOSCOW

LONDON, Feb. 29—With a 60-mile cordon drawn around Moscow to keep peasants from entering the capital, a severe food shortage is being felt in Russia as a result of the Finnish war, a Reuters dispatch from Bucharest asserted today.

Prices in Moscow have soared, reliable sources were quoted as confirming, and food lines are the largest in years.

While there is no lack of bread, other foodstuffs are scarce and vodka is almost unobtainable.

Several reasons were given in the dispatch for the cordon—the chief one being that Moscow authorities do not want the peasants to find out what conditions are.

There is such a shortage of fodder in the rural districts that peasants are compelled to feed black bread to the cattle, the Reuters account went on.

If the peasants find out how high meat prices have gone in Moscow, they might slaughter the cattle for sale in the capital, the Bucharest story explained.

Reuters said villages are short of paraffin and salt, and Soviet authorities do not want them to realize that Moscow, although there is no abundance there, is the best-treated town in the country.

"Strictly business" will be the order of the day when Welles arrives in Berlin.

Once again denying reports that Nazi Germany plans a new "peace offensive," Wilhelmstrasse spokesmen emphasized that Welles himself had requested audiences in Berlin "for informative purposes only."

Dinner Date Fixed

As a result, it was said, his mission falls outside the usual category of state visits, obviating the necessity for special "trimmings" during Germany's reception except for private courtesies such as the foreign office dinner planned by Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop or a luncheon call on Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering at his country estate of Schorfheide.

The sound from one microphone produces one type of curve, the other 'microphone' simultaneously produces a second curve. Where the curves intersect on a chart is the exact position of the battery or a single gun.

The location is telephoned back to the British batteries which immediately go into action to silence the enemy.

The entire action requires only a few seconds.

U. S. OFFICE HITS MOVE TO DIVERT SCIOTO WATERS

Army Engineers Consider
Floodwater Plan, But
Veto Question

BENEFIT LACK CITED

Studies Of Control To Go
On Through, Colonel
Marks Says

A move by Ohio interests to divert floodwaters of the Scioto River into the Sandusky River watershed was blasted Thursday in a report from the War Department division engineer in charge of the Ohio River division.

The report declared that the proposal had been thoroughly studied and that it is "unfavorable to participation by the United States in any improvement for the flood control measures for which the War Department is responsible."

The principal grounds on which the adverse conclusions are based are the lack of sufficient benefits from the prosecution of a flood control project involving diversion of flood waters from the Scioto River into the Sandusky River watershed to justify the expenditure involved. Independent studies for flood control on each of the Sandusky and Scioto watersheds are being continued, however, the War Department declared.

"You are further notified," the report continued, "that all interested parties have the privilege of an appeal from this conclusion to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, a permanent body sitting at Washington, D. C., to which all examination and survey reports of this character are referred. Parties desiring to do so may be heard on appeal by the Board, either orally or in writing."

The report was written by E. H. Marks, colonel, corps of engineers, senior member of the board.

WILHELM KUNZE TAKES OVER AS BUND LEADER

NEW YORK, Feb. 29.—G. Wilhelm Kunze today became official leader of the German-American Bund with the substitution of his name in the listing of officers for that of Fritz Kuhn, now in jail, in the "Free American," official publications of the organization.

Before going to jail for stealing Bund funds, Kuhn designated Kunze as his successor.

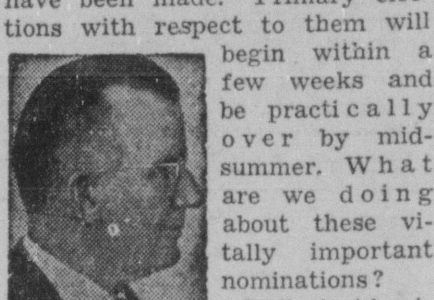

PETTENGILL

"The Gentleman from Indiana"

DON'T MISS THE BOAT!

The nomination or election of your candidate for President, or any candidate won't pay the national debt. It will not automatically cure unemployment either of idle dollars or idle men. It will not balance the budget. It will not stop deficits. It will not reduce taxes. No President, without strong support, can do any of these things.

Nevertheless, our eyes are glued on the Presidential race. One candidate will be named in June and another in July. By that time nominations of nearly all of thirty-four Senate seats and four hundred thirty-five House seats will have been made. Primary elections with respect to them will begin within a few weeks and be practically over by mid-summer. What are we doing about these vitally important nominations?

Reflect that PETTENGILL the truly important branch of the federal government is Congress. It was so intended when the Constitution was written, and it is equally true today. The power to enact laws is a greater power than to execute them. The President cannot execute laws which Congress has not passed. An ambitious President can do little harm as long as we have a strong Congress, and a strong President can do little good with a weak Congress.

The importance of nominating and electing strong men to the House and Senate has increased greatly in the past few years. In the first place we no longer have a predictable Supreme Court of the United States. Principles upon which American business has been done, and American property protected for decades, can no longer be taken for granted in the highest court of the land. Neither Congress nor the people therefore can "pass the buck" to the Supreme Court. In a way that may be a good thing provided we recognize it.

In addition under the new interpretation of the power to regulate interstate commerce now reaching down to the employment of labor, strikes, wages and hours, Congress today has power and responsibility greater than it has been ever called upon to exercise. By virtue of this new interpretation of the Interstate Commerce clause we have had, in effect, an unwritten amendment to the Constitution. That new power and responsibility attaches not only to Congress as a body, but to each individual member. It also attaches to you and me who nominate and elect them.

No President can balance the budget. He can, if he chooses, recommend that it be done. But that is all. Only Congress can cut the suit of appropriations to the cloth of taxes. If the billions of dollars now lying idle in the banks are to go to work in putting men to work, they must be ment, on the one hand, and on the other, those who want to exchange it for national socialism. The Congressmen and Senators of both parties who have demonstrated their fidelity to the American way of life should be rewarded for their courage, and those of both parties who believe in a Nazi or Communist America should be punished for their crimes.

GARNER MAY TRAVEL TO CHICAGO FOR ADDRESS

CHICAGO, Feb. 29.—Vice President Garner, a candidate in the Illinois preferential presidential primary April 9, may come to Chicago within five weeks to speak, it was revealed today by Julius Smietanka, manager of the Garner forces in the state.

Negotiations regarding a Chicago appearance by the vice president are under way, Smietanka said. Since he announced himself as a presidential candidate, Mr. Garner has had little to say publicly.

Smietanka also declared the vice president's backers welcomed President Roosevelt's appearance in the Illinois primary, seeing the contest as a test at the polls of the third term question.

Practical jokes, according to an item, show expansive humor. And if the joke backfires—expensive, too.

RISING PRICES FEATURE MART ON WEDNESDAY

A stronger and steadily rising market was seen at the sales of the Pickaway Livestock Cooperative Association auction Wednesday. Lambs and calves were higher and the hog sales steady with good quality noted. A big run of cattle moved strongly despite some going cheaply. The market showed steadier and with an upward swing over last week.

ATHENS COUNTY JURY STUDYING BRIBE CHARGES

ATHENS, Feb. 29.—An Athens County common pleas jury resumed deliberations today on the fate of County Commissioners Ira Whitmore and Walter MacCombs, on trial on charge of soliciting and accepting bribes.

The case went to the jury early yesterday afternoon. After failing to reach a verdict in four hours the jury was locked up for the night.

The state charges the commissioners were paid money to influence their purchase of stone and other highway materials. Both have denied the prosecution's allegations.

Yessiree — it Pays to Pay Enough!

TO SOME people, this spruce and sprightly Buick SPECIAL may be just one of those ambitions they hope some day to achieve.

But if you ask owners—especially those who have stepped up to Buick from the lowest-price field—you'll find it's really an eye-opener to a new and sounder slant on automobile buying.

Actually, the money difference between lesser cars and this nimble traveler is smaller than most people think. And when you've driven a Buick a while you find that spending these few extra dollars is really the soundest kind of economy.

They buy more power. They buy more room. They buy the matchless comfort of all-coil springing and the welcome feeling of having come up in the world.

They also buy more automobile. A bigger, solidier, more durable frame. A husky, time-defying chassis. Top-grade materials, superfine precision, "on the money" craftsmanship, things that make the difference between an adequate car and a good one.

You get your money back in tangible things, such as engines balanced after assembly, wider outlook through Safety Plate Glass only, some six dozen features from automatic choke to the Flash-Way Direction Signal with automatic cut-off.

Every mile you drive you'll see how you profit by spending enough to get something really good.

And what you spend, as you'll see if you call on your Buick dealer, is less than you're asked to pay in some places for a six!

Not a six but an EIGHT for $895 and up delivered at Flint, Mich.*

*Transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

RECEIPTS FROM COURT TOURNEY PASS LAST YEAR

Manager Higley Submits His Financial Report, Showing Results Of Event

SNOW HURTS FIRST NIGHT

Need For Seat Building Cuts Balance By $56; Parking Problem Discussed

The Pickaway County basketball tournament, won last week at Atlanta by Ashville boys and Darby Township girls, was a financial success, the report of Carl A. Higley, Ashville superintendent who was tournament manager, discloses. Many persons had thought, Mr. Higley said, that because the tournament was conducted in a part of the county remote from the county seat and the eastern part of the county that attendance would fall off, but his figures discount this belief.

Total receipts from the tournament this year amounted to $1,059.10. Mrs. Higley disclosed, compared with $1,058.30 a year ago when the competition was conducted in the Circleville Athletic Club gymnasium. But for heavy snows the first night the record would have been much higher, the drifting snow threatening to force postponement of the opening session. Receipts on opening night this year totalled only $241.90 including 150 season tickets, compared with $422.25 last year on the first night. However, other sessions were successful. The second session brought in $209.50 with 23 season tickets, compared with $111.45 a year ago; third session, $155.40, last year $132.80; fourth session, $202, compared with $160.80 last year, and fifth session, $200 compared with $231 last year.

$125 Rent Paid

The county schools paid $125 as rent for the Atlanta gymnasium, the same price that it paid last year, but the Circleville Chamber of Commerce assumed a $50 obligation, the difference between the price the tournament would pay and the price that the Athletic Club would accept.

Officials cost $125 this year, the same as last. One item of expense was added, the schools finding it necessary to build some seats which cost $56 and boosting total expenses to $601.63, compared with $583.85 last year. The balance left in the tournament treasury is $454.27 compared with $474.45 last year.

Mr. Higley declared that 10 men ran the tournament this year while last year it required 15. He discussed the parking problem, too, declaring that the problem took care of itself and that "no one was humiliated by being dragged into court to pay $2 fines for alley parking as they have in the past."

TWO ARMED MEN FLEE WITH SUM FROM OHIO BANK

CINCINNATI, Feb. 29 — The two armed bandits who held up and robbed the suburban Elmwood Place National Bank and fled with $8,100 after locking two employees in a vault today apparently had made good their escape.

Federal agents joined the hunt as funds of the bank were federally insured. However, despite a road blockade on all routes leading from Cincinnati by city, county and state officers, the bandits, unmasked and about 35 years old, were not apprehended.

The employees locked in the vault freed themselves by means of a safety catch inside.

DARBY TOWNSHIP WATER SUPPLY BEING TESTED

Mrs. Minnie Ridgeway, Darby Township, was removed to a Columbus hospital Wednesday afternoon after her illness had been diagnosed as typhoid fever. Dr. A. D. Blackburn, county health commissioner, sent water samples from the wells in the neighborhood of the Ridgeway home, one mile south of Derby on the Derby-Darbyville Pike, to the state department of health for analysis. This marked the first typhoid case in the county in over a year, Dr. Blackburn said.

THEATRES

AT THE CLIFTONA

One of the greatest "all-name" casts since "Dinner at Eight" and "Grand Hotel" was assembled by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer for "Strange Cargo" story of a group of desperadoes who escape a South American penal colony. The picture, co-starring Clark Gable and Joan Crawford, opens Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre.

Gable is seen as Verne Andre, a convict who believes implicitly in his own physical strength carrying him through any emergency. Miss

Crawford is the cynical cafe entertainer, Julie. With them appear Ian Hunter as the mysterious figure, Cambreau, who influences the fates of all around him; Peter Lorre as the repulsive libertine, Monsieur Pig; Paul Lukas as the wife-murderer, Hessler; Albert Dekker as the Cockney safe-cracker, Moll; J. Edward Bromberg as the fear-ridden killer, Flaubert; Eduardo Ciannelli as the demented Telez; Victor Varconi as the fisherman who must aid the survivors of the prison break; John Arledge as the weakling, Dufond; Frederic Worlock as the prison governor, Grid-eau; and Bernard Nedell as Marfeu.

SICK WITH HATE

THERE is too much reliance on hate as the motive to drive people in masses today, says Dr. Albert W. Beaven, head of an eastern divinity school. The Christian doctrine of cooperation and good will is sneered at.

So the cult of hate grows. It has become an epidemic disease. And this is no mere figure of speech, Dr. Beaven insists. Hate can become, and has become, as truly a disease as if it were a streptococcus infection.

In some way it is worse than streptococcus, because it affects people's minds and souls instead of their bodies. And yet, in some countries, spreading these hate germs is regarded today as a virtue.

All the more reason, then, why sane people in sane countries should spread the beneficial germs of good will and kindness.

HONEST WRITING

CONGRATULATIONS from one writing man to another! The fellow we're congratulating is a lad in the third grade of a school in Oklahoma.

The pupils in his class were asked to write an essay on the month of February, and here is the essay he wrote:

"February has a great many birthdays. My dog's is the sixth."

That lad, in all probability, wasn't trying to be funny at all. And it isn't likely that he had any grudge against Abraham Lincoln or George Washington. He was simply preoccupied with the birthday that meant most to him, which was his dog's. He was writing about life as he saw it, in complete sincerity, going straight to the point, stating the main fact and then stopping.

ITALY'S TOY CAR

THEY may have some of Rudy Nebb's "power pills" in Italy. At any rate, they say they have an automobile capable of traveling 137 miles on one gallon of gasoline. Its top speed is only 37.5 miles an hour, but they can go far before the gas gives out.

Its generous mileage is not the only remarkable thing about the new car. It is a two-seater, weighs only 280 pounds, and can be set in motion by a system of pedals (an improvement over cranking). The pedals may be used also to save gasoline or to get back home if the supply runs out.

The body of the car is so elastic that it does not require springs. This may be an aid to both safety and comfort.

It sounds more useful than the small German car promised a few years ago, which has not yet appeared in great numbers.

We'll keep on having wars as long as patriotism is merely loyalty to one country.

'ROUND CIRCLEVILLE ... Hour by Hour

Pages From the Diary of an Antiquated Reporter:

Up at the usual hour and giving particular attention to lengthening of day. Seems like it was only yesterday that I was getting up in darkness. Must be that Spring is just around the corner. Scanned the morning prints over a cup of coffee and found little of interest. Still plenty of fighting up in Finland and none on the western front. I think that all involved in the European war await proposals for any kind of peace that will be face saving. Even the war lords do not care as much of war as they once did. Its effects are too far reaching and too lasting.

Pleased to learn that we will loan a few millions to Finland and more millions to China. Both nations are being kicked around by bullies and merit some support out of us since we are proverbial champions of under dogs. And, too, what are the few millions we will send overseas compared with the money we loaned in Europe during and after the world war which is still owed us and probably never will be repaid unless the debtor nations wish to establish new credit.

Visited city hall and inspected the jail which is receiving a fresh coat of paint. My, what a dump is that jail. I'll say that anyone put in it is being punished. Well, that is why folk are sent to jail, isn't it? It is a good thing that the women folk of the ville have not viewed that jail or a new one would be in process of erection right now. I'm not particularly concerned because I am old fashioned in my ideas about not petting criminals. I have seen jails in which imprisonment would be almost a pleasure. And I doubted their effect as punishment. Our jail is different. No one would be anxious to return there as a guest.

Chatted with Bill Radcliff, the barrister, and learned to my pleasure that he is opposed to a special session of the State assembly. Get those legislators together in Columbus and out of the session is bound to come appropriations of such magnitude that increased taxes will be necessary. All the special lobbies are encamped at the state house and just awaiting the proper time to pounce. A $10 a month increase in the old age pension is among the proposals, and new relief proposals that will make it easy on the big cities at the expense of rural communities. The big cities are very high hat about their industries and big population so long as times are good, but when times go sour the big cities would force us to help care for their jobless. I think that since the big cities profit by the presence of those citizens in good times that they should take care of them when times are bad. That is, with the same measure of state support that is granted such villas as our own.

CONGRESSMAN AIDS FAMILY

WASHINGTON—One of the hottest congressional elections in the 1934 campaign was the contest in the Tenth Wisconsin District between Representative Hubert Peavey and State Senator Bernard J. Gehrman. Principal issue of the battle was nepotism.

In scores of speeches Gehrman blasted Peavey for having his wife on the congressional payroll as his secretary.

"There are hundreds of competent young people in our district able and deserving to fill this job," Gehrman thundered. "It is not right that my opponent should give it to his wife when there are so many in need of work and the taxpayers pay him $10,000 a year to represent them."

The voters felt the same way, retiring Peavey and sending Gehrman to Washington in his place. But in the six years that have elapsed since then, Gehrman's crusading ardor has undergone a marked change.

He who once so righteously denounced the gravy bowl now is in it up to his elbows. Here's his nepotism roster:

Arthur Gehrman, son, clerk in the Farm Security Administration office at Neillsville, Wis., $1,440.

Joseph Gehrman, son, CCC camp foreman at Baraboo, Wis., $1,740.

Victor Gehrman, son, clerk in Indian Division of the CCC at Cass Lake, Minn., $1,560.

Dorothy Gehrman, daughter, until recently PWA clerk in Chicago, $1,440.

Total gravy haul of the Gehrman family, including the Congressman's $10,000 salary—$16,180 a year.

ANTI-TOBACCO LECTURE

Pet aversion of bachelor Justice James C. McReynolds is tobacco in all forms. This antipathy cost a newsreel cameraman a brisk lecture on the Justice's recent 78th birthday.

The photographers were making shots of him coming jauntily out of his fashionable 16th Street apartment house when the newsreel man, chewing a cigar stub, apologetically spoke up: "Mr. Justice, would you mind doing that over? I'm sorry to have to trouble you, sir, but I've just discovered that my camera was out of focus."

McReynolds complied, then scowled and snapped, "Young man, let this be a lesson to you. If you hadn't been chewing on that filthy weed and had been paying attention to your business you would have got your picture the first time."

POLITICAL BITS

Vandenberg managers are quietly following Hoover's strategy and have sent word to state lieutenants to work for uninstructed delegations. . . . In his recent Chicago speech Republican Floor Leader Joe Martin mentioned the names of the Illinois GOP Congressmen. Biggest applause was accorded that of Noah M. Mason when Martin added after his name, "A good patriotic member of the Dies committee" . . . There is a better than even chance that GOP National Chairman John Hamilton will not be a member of the Kansas convention delegation. Certain to head it is Alf Landon.

"The average woman," says a lecturer, "is better informed politically than her husband." There they go again, sowing family discord.

LAFF-A-DAY

DIET AND HEALTH

Is There a Chemistry of Human Intelligence?

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Are there any chemical or physical changes in the brain during active function? In other words, is there a chemistry of intelligence?

There is a great deal of data but we would not like to come to any definite conclusions. The brain requires oxygen, sugar and water. Disturbance in the water balance of the brain is disastrous, resulting in decreased mental efficiency, and, when the balance is profoundly upset, coma and delirium.

The water balance of the brain is intimately bound up with the acid-base equilibrium. The epileptic brain is an alkaline brain. The diabetic brain is an acid brain and, if not balanced by proper treatment, results in retarded mentation and stupor.

The brain cannot function at all without oxygen. Balloonists at 25,000 feet or more find their mental reaction so impaired that they cannot make observations.

"Are our thoughts also at the bottom electric?" asks Dr. Albert

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

P. Mathews, professor of biochemistry at the University of Cincinnati. "Whenever a nerve impulse sweeps over a nerve it is accompanied by an electrical disturbance. When the nerve impulses pass back and forth over the commissures of the brain, they are accompanied by this pale lightning of the negative variation. Is that pale lightning what we recognize as consciousness?"

Rocky Mountain

Spotted Fever

Has Rocky Mountain spotted fever ever appeared in the eastern states?

Yes. There have been reports this year from Tennessee and Massachusetts. The disease is spread by infected ticks, and ticks have been found to be very prevalent around Cape Cod. Summer residents find ticks on themselves and on their dogs.

The importance of protecting the hands when removing ticks cannot be overestimated; likewise protect the body, particularly the legs, when traveling through grass or brush.

The tick season in the eastern United States extends from the first warm days of spring to mid-summer. In Tennessee and other of the southern states, a number of cases were reported in 1939. In the southern states also endemic typhus fever is reported.

In the case of Rocky Mountain spotted fever, small rodents act as reservoirs and the disease is transmitted through the bites of infected ticks. In the case of endemic typhus fever, the animal reservoir is the rat and the insect vector the rat flea.

Both diseases have a sudden onset, with chills and headaches, rapidly rising temperature and a rash three to five days after onset. Treatment has been tried by the use of sulfanilamide.

Answer: It is a possibility but a very faint one. I never heard of a case.

CHAPTER FORTY-TWO

THE NEXT month was a busy one for everyone in Cecelia's newly formed family circle. Cissie was like a proud mother hen clucking over her two chicks as she watched their amazing radio careers unfold.

"I wouldn't have missed all this for the world," she told Romany one day in the studio, watching the first televised broadcast she had ever seen.

In her South Shore drive apartment, she had engineers install the best television reception equipment money could buy. And she invited all her friends to drop in for tea and watch and listen to her lovely niece as she came over the air.

Cissie was as unselfishly devoted to Charlotte as to Romany. At first Cholly was overwhelmed with the idea of being introduced to Chicago society as Cecelia Harlowe's ward. But she soon grew accustomed to her new role and found herself having a marvelous time playing Cinderella. Much to her amazement, she learned that a lot of people in the upper brackets were quite as human and unaffected as anyone else. And she began seriously to doubt that a lot of ideas she had entertained regarding the rich were entirely sound. For instance: There was Dover. Would he be any different if he had been brought up on a farm than with a silver spoon in his mouth? If you were a real person, did it matter whether you were rich or poor?

A few days before Christmas, Cecelia asked Romany:

"Do you know how to drive a car, dear? If you don't, you'd better take some lessons."

"Yes, I know how to drive. But why?" Romany looked puzzled. "Because," Cissie looked up from the magazine she was reading in her boudoir—"I bought one for you today. And I can't wait till Christmas to give it to you."

"Oh!" Romany jumped up. "Aunt Cissie, you shouldn't have done it!" Cissie kissed her affectionately.

"Don't you think I know how much money you've been sending home to your father and mother, and if you won't buy anything but annuities for yourself, I'll just have to buy the luxuries for you. Besides, I think you should have a car in your position. You seem to forget you're a famous young lady now."

Romany buried her head in her aunt's lap.

"Oh," her voice caught—"everybody is so good and so many lovely things are happening to me. I ought to be the happiest girl in the world."

Cissie raised her head, looking into her eyes.

"But you're not happy, dear. Not quite," she said gently. "Could you tell me about it? I'd like to know. I'm rather fond of you, you know."

Romany stirred uneasily, her green eyes troubled.

"It's something I can't quite explain, Aunt Cissie. Not even to myself. I—wish I could."

"Is it about Brent Nelson?" Cecelia asked, stroking her hair. "Is it that you aren't sure you love him, and want to marry him?"

"That's part of it," Romany sighed. "I know I'm very fond of him, and he has begged me to marry him. I think I'm crazy not to. But—I just don't feel—"

When she stopped, Cissie nodded, sighing.

"You just don't feel! Yes, I know, darling. Well, if you're not sure, be very careful. It would be terrible if you married someone you didn't love. I've seen so much marriage for social position, and for money, I couldn't bear to see you marry and have your home smashed on the rocks. I guess I'm not very modern."

"That's the way I feel," Romany held tightly to her aunt's hand, as if she needed something to cling to. "I thought once that I wasn't the sort of person who would ever really fall in love. That if I married it would be because I met someone who would be good to me and congenial. But now I'm not sure."

Cecelia said gently: "Is there someone else, Romany, besides Brent? Someone you met at the university, perhaps?"

As if in answer to her aunt's thoughts, Romany said: "There's—Baxter Tree. The writer I told you about. I'm very fond of him. I do miss him terribly. But I guess he's crossed me off his list. He really wasn't away for Thanksgiving. I doubt if he had the fare to go home. He's so poor."

Cissie watched Romany's face closely.

"But—he's just a friend, isn't he? You couldn't be in love with him."

"Oh, no," Romany turned away. "There's never been any romance between Bax and me. But"—she hesitated—"he did kiss me down by the lake the night I went to his apartment to find out why he hadn't come to see us."

Aunt Cissie was highly amused. "He kissed you! Did he act as though he meant it? Or just as though he thought it might be expected of him and he'd better get it over with?"

Romany smiled wistfully. "Very much as though he meant it the first time. But later, when I wanted him to kiss me again, he just looked at me and said no, he wouldn't like to get the habit."

"You brazen thing!" Cissie laughed. "I can't imagine your going around asking men to kiss you."

"I can't either," Romany said, in a low voice. "And I'll know better next time. But he was so discouraged and unhappy. I felt so sorry for him, it just about broke my heart."

"Oh," said Cecelia, "so that's it!" "What?" Romany looked up questioningly.

"Pity, my darling, is akin to love. Didn't anyone ever tell you that? And when a woman feels like kissing away a man's aches and pains, it looks pretty serious to me."

Cissie said it teasingly. But she decided Baxter Mason Tree would

Visit To Orchard House Brings Tourist A Gift

Mrs. W. Emerson Downing of East Main Street has received an unusual and interesting gift, because of a visit to "Orchard House" in Concord, Mass., which was the home of Louisa M. Alcott, beloved writer of girls' books. While on a trip to the East several years ago, Mrs. Downing first visited the historical house making her second visit last summer while a member of the artists colony at Gloucester.

Telling Miss Rebekah Briggs, the caretaker, of her interest in Miss Alcott and her books, Mrs. Downing was asked for her card and told that she would hear from her later.

A few days ago the following letter was received by Mrs. Downing:

My Dear Mrs. Downing:
I remember that you visited the "Orchard House" and how you told me of your love for Louisa Alcott and her books, and how I remember thinking you were just the one that would appreciate having a little piece of one of Louisa's gowns. A few years ago Mrs. Pratt (Dennil's widow) gave me a good large piece of one of Louisa's gowns, saying that I might like giving, once in a while, a piece to a devoted lover of Louisa and her books. So the past few summers I have done so. Maybe to two guests in a season. (The house is open only six months of the year.) I have your card and fully intended sending this to you weeks ago but went away on a long vacation, so it did not get done. Now I am again at home and here it is. I hope you will like having it.

Mrs. Pratt was a very dear friend of mine and has now been gone three years. I still miss her so very much. I have been at the "Orchard House" nineteen years and she was chairman of the house committee at the time she died and visited the house every week.

Most sincerely,
Rebekah Briggs

February 21, 1940

Inclosed in the letter was a piece of silk from one of Miss Alcott's gowns, an interesting memento which Mrs. Downing plans to frame and have hung in the Circleville Public Library.

Mrs. Downing in speaking of "Orchard House" mentioned it as the locale of "Little Women" and May Alcott was the "Amy" of the book.

debuts on Thursday, March 7, at 9:30 p. m. over the NBC-Red network.

Through dramatic device Vallee will transmute each week into a character notable in history, but will retain his own identity throughout the show. Comedy relief will be furnished by Slapsy Maxie Rosenbloom, who will also play himself.

The "fantasy musical comedy" idea is the result of the "Burbank-ing" formula suggested by Rudy Vallee. The historical angle was chosen because in radio where no costumes are necessary Producer Vic Knight and agency execs felt that use of premise which everyone is familiar with, would have the greatest audience appeal. First theme will be based on Christopher Columbus. Each week a different

Hollywood celebrity will be gueststarred on the show and the program's policy will be to cast the guest artists to fit the story rather than picking the story to fit the artist.

The music will be furnished by a 25 piece orchestra and a chorus of 15 voices with Ken Darby, (who did special arrangements for the "Wizard of Oz" and "Pinocchio") and Elliott Daniels heading the musical contingent.

LANNY ROSS MEMORY TRIP

The story of George Hays, a pilot, whose airplane was forced down somewhere in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, will be dramatized on Lanny Ross' trip down Memory Lane on Tuesday, March 5, 2 p. m. over CBS, when the tenor sings "Wishing," in memory of the night's vigil spent by Hays when rescue seemed impossible.

GIRL ALONE PROGRAM

On Wednesday, March 6, at 5 p. m. over the NBC-Red network, "Girl Alone" will combine radio drama, with real action by broadcasting the show from an American Airlines transport plane.

Followers of "Girl Alone" are familiar with Stormy Wilson, the blind aviatrix played by June Travis. Contemplating a journey to South America, Stormy must first test her nerve before embarking on the long flight. The Pilot of the plane will have an actual role in the script.

Mark this date on your calendar 'cause there should be plenty of action both "on the air" and "in the air."

Obituary

OBITUARY
David S. Dennis, son of Henry and Clara A. Smith Dennis was born February 18, 1888, and passed away February 22nd, 1940, aged 51 years and four days.

He was united in marriage to Eliza A. Grall October 11th, 1892. To this union were born one daughter, Mrs. Edna Liston, wife of Earl Liston, who together with five grandchildren survive him. He has but one brother living, T. M. Dennis of Five Points. Four brothers have gone before, Daniel, Joseph, Grant and Smith. Also three sisters, Emma, wife of the late Henry S. Dennis, Mrs. Maggie, wife of Judge Worth Dick of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Clara Robinson, wife of William Robinson. All have passed away.

He loved his home. He was devoted to his family, and especially to his grandchildren, and often said he was sorry to leave them. He was always friendly with his neighbors and friends, of which he had many. A noble man at all times. It was wonderful to truthfully say he was a real man. But a life journey has ended, a life volume has been written. A life record has been completed and been placed in the imperishable archives of eternity.

Another loved one has pushed the golden gates ajar and entered the rest. No one hears the door that opens, so gently comes the call; like a leaf of roses one by one our loved ones fall.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to the friends and neighbors for their kindness, sympathy and all floral offerings extended during the illness and death of our beloved father.

TIGERS SET FOR TOURNAMENT JOUST WITH HOT TEAM

Circleville High Tigers, underdogs as they prepare to leave at 6 p. m. for Delaware to meet the strong Mount Vernon Yellowjackets, believe they have a chance to knock off the Knox County quintet and are prepared to shoot the works in an effort to do so.

The fast break of the Red and Black is expected to be in evidence more tonight than in any game since that at Lancaster when the Tigers knocked the props from under the Gales' victory-laden appraisal.

Coach Black's boys are in perfect condition, physically and mentally and Mount Vernon, observers say, will know that it has been in a basketball game.

The contest begins at 9 p. m. Thursday, the final one on the slate.

The squad will travel in private cars. Coach Black taking Davis, Smith, Walters, Staley, Boushner, Callahan, Valentine, Carr, Gelb and Martin for his squad and Manager Bob Goeller.

Many Circleville fans are planning to make the trip to Delaware, state highway officials advising motorists to remain on Route 23 traveling through Columbus.

Hard-pressed throughout their game, but managing to remain on top, the Purina Feeds retained their position at the top of the City Basketball League Wednesday evening with a 24-20 victory over the Wallace Bakery outfit. The Purina crew led 14-11 at halftime.

Other games resulted:

ARMSTRONG AND GARCIA AWAIT BELL TO START

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 29—California's two world champions, Cefterino Garcia of the middleweights and Henry Armstrong of the welterweights, rested today preparatory to their ten-round world's championship battle tomorrow night which will settle whether a "good little man can whip a good big man" or vice versa.

The referee for the big bout was the one question that remained unanswered today, but names most prominently mentioned were George Blake and Abe Roth.

With the fight only 24 hours away Promoter Charley MacDonaid predicted that with fair weather a new gate record would be set. Gilmore stadium will accommodate 41,000 people.

While the advance sale is nearly twice that which promoters had for Joe Louis and Jack Roper, who drew $89,000 last April, there were still good seats available from the $2 reserved to the $10 ringside.

Two special trains are to arrive here tomorrow from San Francisco with sports fans killing two birds with one stone to see the fight and the running of the $100,000 handicap on Saturday.

CONZELMAN IN DRIVER'S SEAT FOR TEMPLE JOB

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 29—Jimmy Conzelman, who resigned last month as head football coach at Washington University, St. Louis, today was reported holding the inside track on a similar grid vacancy at Temple University.

Conzelman, about whose candidacy Temple authorities professed no knowledge last week, was listed as the No. 1 possibility to succeed Fred H. Swan, the Owl member who gave up two remaining years of a three-year Temple contract to go to Colgate as assistant to Andy Kerr.

LEONARD, TRAVIS SIGN

ORLANDO, Fla., Feb. 29—Owner Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators announced today that his ace pitcher, Dutch Leonard, the big knuckleballer who won 20 and lost eight last year, has agreed to salary terms. Shortstop Cecil Travis, another holdout until today, also has signed up, Griff reported. Travis will be returned to his old third base position this year.

COOKIE READY TO GO

CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 29—Signed at a reputed $11,000 for the season, Infielder Cookie Lavagetto displayed the eagerness of a rookie today as he worked out with the Brooklyn Dodgers. Only a brief confab with President Larry MacPhail was necessary to come to terms.

Chillicothe City Club 54, Caskey Cleaners 32, (exhibition).
Eshelman Feeds 37, Western Auto Supply 29.

The Purina-Wallace joust was a rare defensive gem with each team turning in an excellent brand of ball.

Stout's had too many guns for the John Deere youngsters who kept fighting but couldn't catch up. Bobby Trego, Earl Wilson and Harold Gulick paced the winners.

Cropp, lefthanded ace of the Chillicothe City Club team, turned in a one-man scoring spree against the Caskey team to pile up 14 field goals and two foul tosses for 30 of his team's 54 points.

Herb Bowshier of the Western Auto was outscored by Carl Purcell in Wednesday's game, one of the few times that the Atlanta star has failed to top the field this year. Purcell hit the hoop for seven field goals and two charity heaves. Bowshier totalled 11 points.

MANY BRIDGES TO BE CONSTRUCTED, ROADS REPAIRED IN NEXT YEAR

ESTIMATES AND PLANS AWAITED FOR BIG PROJECT

Much Of Program To Be Carried On In Eastern District

VARIOUS JOBS LISTED

Route 76 Task On Greist Highway Being Carried On Now

Approval of WPA authorities has been obtained for a wide bridge building and road repairing program which has been put under way and which will be in full blast as soon as plans and estimates are completed.

Plans for four bridges have been completed and one is now under construction. Work is expected to start soon on the remaining three. All four are in Washington Township.

Under construction is the 54-foot long bridge on Route 76, Greist Road, near the farm of Charles Compton. A 15-foot span on the concrete slab bridge extension which will carry a 26-foot roadway and concrete rails will be under construction shortly on Route 76 near the Pearl Greeno farm.

Others To Be Started

A 71-foot reinforced concrete bridge on Route 42 near the Brungs farm and a 50-foot bridge on the Pickaway - Washington Township line between the farms of J. D. Hummel and C. H. Smith will both be started as soon as the weather permits the opening of construction. Five headwalls are being built along the bridges on Route 76.

Fourteen bridges and spans throughout the county will go under construction as soon as plans are completed. Two more that are to be constructed on Route 76 have not had estimates drawn and will be part of the program of the spring and summer.

Other bridge construction projects that are to be part of the program are two bridges on Route 22 in Scioto Township between Mt. Sterling and Commercial Point; four spans on Route 26 in Darby Township between Circleville and London; one bridge at Turkey Run on the Ringgold Northern Road in Walnut Township; five structures on Route 25 in Perry Township.

CHILLICOTHEANS VOTE TURTLE PROPHET SAYS FIRE DEPARTMENT FUND WINTER WEATHER AT END

CHILLICOTHE, Feb. 29 — City officials explaining the emergency action by council this week which authorized the issuing of $25,000 in notes to buy fire department equipment said that they intend to study the fire insurance thoroughly before any of the money is spent.

Recommendations from the Ohio Inspection Bureau on what is necessary for reduced fire insurance rates for the city will be obtained by the officials. Any program undertaken would be toward rate reduction and would bear the bureau's approval, they said.

Mayor Harold H. Brown pointed out that the city will obtain new equipment and also augment the force of the fire department. Two men have already been added.

Routes 85, Goodman - Teegardin Road, Madison Township; Route 22, Mt. Sterling - Commercial Point Road, Scioto Township; Route 76, Washington Township; Route 125, Crownover Mill Road, Monroe Township.

All the projects will be built with WPA labor and under Harley West, bridge supervisor.

WASHINGTON, C. H., Feb. 29 — The backbone of the winter is broken and spring is just around the corner, if we take our weather forecasting from the turtleman weather prophet.

A dry fall and an unusually cold winter was prophesied early last autumn by this particular turtle catcher. He based his forecast on the fact that the turtles were far back in muskrat dens in creek banks.

The latest prediction made by the prophet is that there will be no more severe weather this winter because the turtles are coming out now.

CINCINNATI ORDERED TO PROCEED WITH HOUSING

COLUMBUS, Feb. 29 — City Manager C. O. Sherrill, of Cincinnati, today was under court order to sign a $13,500,000 contract between the United States Housing Authority and the Cincinnati Metropolitan Housing Authority.

Upon the request of Cincinnati City Solicitor John D. Ellis, the state supreme court issued a writ of mandamus compelling Sherrill to sign the contract although he contended the loan was neither for "low rent housing" or "slum clearance" as stipulated.

Of the total sum, $7,500,000 would be spent for vacant land housing projects, $1,500,000 for dwelling units in Laurel Hills, for occupation by negro families and the balance for negro slum clearance in Cincinnati's West End.

And whereas, it is the opinion of this board of County Commissioners that said tracts or parcels of land are of less value than the amounts of taxes, assessments, penalties, and interest due upon them; therefore be it resolved, that the Auditor of this County be and he is hereby ordered to offer them for sale at the next regular sale of Forfeited Lands and sell them to the highest and best bidder thereon, irrespective of the amounts of taxes, assessments, penalties and interest respectively due thereon.

Thousands Lose Homes As Flood Hits California

THREE-DAY rainfall causes flood conditions in sections of northern and central California. Hundreds of families, including this one, were evacuated by firemen and national guardsmen as the waters threatened their homes. This picture was taken at Pescadero, Cal., as a fireman, right, helped Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thomas remove their small son to safety.

Upper Sacramento Valley Devastated; Many Acres Inundated, Bridges And Houses Wiped Out; More Levees May Break

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 29—More than 4,000 persons were known to be homeless today in what authorities estimated to be the most devastating flood in the history of northern California.

Greatest havoc was along the Upper Sacramento Valley. The Sacramento River and its tributaries burst their banks in several sections and deluged thousands of acres, washing out bridges and houses.

FRENCH PREPARE TO ISSUE BREAD RATIONING CARD

PARIS, Feb. 29—Bread rationing cards will be issued in France shortly, the newspaper Paris Soir predicted today as the Chamber of Deputies began its debate on the nation's agricultural resources.

"The agricultural debate will result in a decision to issue bread cards," the paper stated. "There is plenty of wheat but fewer bakers."

Paris Soir also said that pastry shops will be closed two days a week and that army leaves will be extended to all farmers.

Meanwhile the council of ministers met for the second successive day to consider economic problems connected with the war.

NORTHERN PORT OF MURMANSK UNDER SOLDIERS

LONDON, Feb. 29—Outbreak of disorders in the northern Soviet port of Murmansk has caused authorities there to enforce martial law, according to reports circulated in London today.

Reuters (British) news agency reported that the Finnish radio claimed martial law was put in force in Murmansk and other Soviet frontier towns. In addition, said the report, a curfew has been clamped down from midnight to 5 a. m.

Special detachments of police were said to have been rushed into the trouble zone.

Cash from State Eases Relief Task

SURPRISE CHECK FOR $8,159 AIDS COUNTY CRISIS

High Expenses In January, Anticipated February Costs Cited

BONDS TO BE RETIRED
General Fund To Be Left Unbothered As Result Of Distribution

What a few days ago appeared to be a dismal outlook for the relief situation in Pickaway County with the retirement of $13,357 in relief notes due March 1, has suddenly brightened with the arrival of checks from the state auditor carrying an unexpected $8,159 from the one percent public utilities excise tax fund.

Darkening the financial horizon of the county relief was the fact that costs for the month of January leaped to $9,174 for the city of Circleville and Pickaway County which are combined under one relief administration. It is also expected that the cost of relief for February will exceed the $10,500 mark.

Funds from the state amounting to $3,696 to match the county costs left a balance of $5,477 of which Circleville owes 42 percent or $2,333.

Outlook Was Dark
Until the sudden windfall, money to replenish the relief fund was not in sight until September since all incoming revenue would have had to be used for the retirement of the relief notes that were issued in August and December of 1939.

Notes amounting to $13,357 were issued with the approval of the county commissioners in August. (Continued on Page Two)

CINCINNATI, Feb. 29—Juvenile court officials today investigated the claim of a 14-year-old boy that he had been beaten cruelly at Glenview School.

KERMIT ROOSEVELT TALKS WITH BRIT WAR OFFICE ABOUT ASSISTING FINNS

LONDON, Feb. 29—Major Kermit Roosevelt, son of the late President Theodore Roosevelt, conferred with British war office authorities today, presumably regarding plans to command the international volunteer brigade of the Finnish army.

Roosevelt, who joined the British army shortly after outbreak of the European war, declined to make any statement regarding his plans.

The Finnish Aid Bureau in London yesterday announced that he had applied for permission to resign his commission in the British army, to accept command of Finland's international brigade.

It was learned that Roosevelt probably will not go to Finland for some time. His health was described as indifferent following an attack of gripe and a throat infection.

$40,000,000 To Be Spent In Scandinavian Land And In China

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—Congress today sent to the White House for President Roosevelt's signature legislation permitting a $40,000,000 non-military loan to Finland. Congressional action was completed when the senate concurred in house amendments barring any loans to nations that are still defaulted on war debts.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—The senate in a burst of speed today rushed action on legislation that will place 40,000,000 American dollars at the side of Finnish and Chinese troops fighting to repulse invasion of their countries.

As President Roosevelt ploughed through southern seas on his way back to the capital from a vacation, Senate Majority Leader Barkley of Kentucky announced that action on the Finnish-Chinese loan bill, passed by the house yesterday, will be completed "at once—today."

Mr. Roosevelt, it was known, will sign the bill into law almost immediately on his return. Thus, $20,000,000 loans will be made available to both Finland and China for purchase of non-military goods. (Continued on Page Two)

G. O. P. TO MAKE CENSUS 'SNOOP' CAMPAIGN ISSUE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—The mounting torrent of congressional mail "from the people" protesting alleged census-snooping has provoked consideration by the Republican party high command of the possibility that the issue might profitably be made campaign ammunition, it was learned today.

G.O.P. leaders in house and senate have been advised that the Republican "strategy circle" is watching the census-snooping controversy, originally agitated by Senator Charles W. Tobey of New Hampshire, very closely.

Tobey, who has bitterly denounced inclusion of questions relating to income in the 1940 decennial census that will begin April 1, disclosed that he alone has received more than 4,000 letters, from Democrats as well as Republicans, supporting his stand.

"That kind of mail isn't to be sneezed at," was the spoken attitude of one G.O.P. leader. Even the Democrats agreed with him.

HELSINKI, Feb. 29—Between 25 and 30 Soviet divisions—more than half a million men—were reported attacking Finnish defense positions on the Carelian Isthmus today in a gigantic attempt to turn the Mannerheim Line and capture Viborg.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The London Daily Express reported from Helsinki that strict censorship has been imposed by authorities in the Finnish capital since 10 p. m. Wednesday.)

Military dispatches to Helsinki stated that Russian pressure against the western part of the Mannerheim Line and also in the direction of Viborg, Finland's second city which now lies in ruins, has been vastly increased in the last 24 hours.

There was nothing in the reports from the battle zone, however, to indicate that the Russians have broken through the main Finnish defenses, but it was clear that a desperate battle is in progress.

Flanking Attempt Made
As far as could be ascertained, the Russians appeared to be devoting tremendous efforts to an attempt to outflank the entire Mannerheim Line. (Continued on Page Two)

'SMEAR' HOOVER CAMPAIGN GAINS IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29—A "smear Hoover" campaign, initiated by a group of inside New Dealers for the purpose of driving FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, into private life, today provoked serious concern on Capitol Hill.

The goal of the "smear Hoover" movement is to obtain control of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and turn it into a political gendarme prior to the presidential election, International News Service was told by a high New Dealer who sides with the chief G-man.

Thomas G. Corcoran, New Dealer brain-truster, is reported to be the "brains" of the drive against Hoover. He is said to be nursing a long-time animosity for him.

The "plot" against the chief G-man was described by the pro-Hoover New Dealer in these words:

"A small group of New Dealers have turned the character-assassins on J. Edgar Hoover for the express purpose of driving him out of office." (Continued on Page Two)

NEW 'SPOTTER' LEAP DAY BABY ADDED TO BRIT DEFENSES BORN AT GEORGE GIFFIN'S HOME

LONDON, Feb. 29—A highly secret new robot artillery "spotter" is Great Britain's latest contribution to the war's surprise weapons.

The new device, now being turned out in large quantities as rapidly as possible in anticipation of a German spring offensive, is expected to be brought into play when large scale artillery duels begin on the Western Front. Military experts predict the robot will largely outmode the World War stationary sausage balloon and will compete successfully with the reconnaissance plane.

The robot can detect the location of an enemy battery almost instantaneously, accurately charting its position for counter artillery fire.

The robot is called a "sound-ranger." It locates and computes an opposing battery by sound waves actuating a hyper-sensitive and complicated electrical apparatus.

Can Spot Battery
It can "spot" a single battery, although many other batteries may be firing in the vicinity, and works even amid the tremendous and complicated concatenation of front line operation.

The total pitch of the particular enemy battery is picked up by two sound-ranging microphones. The sound waves are automatically changed to electrical waves and transmitted with the velocity of light. (Continued on Page Two)

WELLES' VISIT BRINGS RUMORS OF NEW POLICY

Editorial In Influential Publication Sets Up Three Proposals

SECURE PEACE CITED

Mutual Cooperation Among Small Countries Listed As One Factor

BERLIN, Feb. 29—Germany's determination to apply the Monroe Doctrine principle to Central Europe and effect a system of cooperation "guaranteeing the freedom and independence of small states" will be stressed to United States Under Secretary of State Sumner Welles when he arrives in Berlin tomorrow.

This was the impression given today by a singular and obviously inspired editorial in the influential newspaper Boersen Zeitung which compared Germany's present position to that of the American colonies when they fought for independence from England.

The Nazi "Monroe Doctrine" idea has been enunciated before, but the editorial's appearance just before Welles' visit was regarded as highly significant.

Three "Guarantees"
Under the signature of Karl Megerles and entitled "Living Spaces," the editorial set forth what were described as the three principles of German "Lebensraum":

- 1.—A warless and secure peace.
2. A practicable and sound regional European organization.
- 3.—Common and mutual cooperation among all nations of Europe by which the freedom and independence of small states will be guaranteed.

RUSSIANS WARN POWERFUL SHIPS BEING READIED

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 29—Russia's naval fleets soon will be enlarged by new type fighting ships, "the like of which has never been seen anywhere," according to a Moscow radio broadcast today.

It stated the Soviets now are constructing cruisers and large destroyers which, it was claimed, will be capable of speeds of about 42 m. p. h.

Russia's Black Sea, Pacific, Polar, Baltic and Atlantic fleets will be increased, the radio announcement said.

Bachelors' Alliance Bobs Up Anew as Defense Against Leap Day Becomes Necessity; Many Eligibles Listed

This story is for ladies, only! And only for single ladies who are well aware that this day, February 29, 1940, gives them an opportunity to cast custom aside and hie unto themselves a husband. Yea, verily, this day coming but once in four years is known as Leap Day, and, if the boy friend has become a little backward about offering the band for the proper finger, there isn't a thing wrong with you taking the problem on your shoulders and going about the task of leading one of these "young" fellows altarward.

Literally, the woods (be it Knight's, or Hitler's, or Ruggles') is full of bounding bachelors who just can't seem to be induced to take the duties of matrimony on themselves. Maybe, just maybe, this Amalgamated Protective Alliance of Circleville Bachelors has something to do with the abundance of "free" youngsters. This Alliance which has been in existence for a good many years, bobs up just about this time each four years.

In 1936 little was heard of the Alliance, but in 1932 it was quite active. Because of the inactivity the Alliance lost many of its members in 1936 and nearby years, but organizers of the Alliance feel that something should be done about the high rate of "mortality" that has crept into its ranks.

Although activities of the organization are kept very secret, word has leaked out that the Alliance's meeting will be held in the basement of Will Hamilton's store sometime during the next 24 hours.

Will was a member of the original Amalgamated Alliance, and many who have only recently qualified for membership regard him as their "Fuehrer." Of course, there are many others who have been members since way back when, among them being John Ryan, Howard Sweetman, Max C. Seyfert, Jr., Elliott Voll, Joe M. Lynch, Harry Well, Mack Parrett, Jr., Milton E. Friedman, Eliot Henry, Samuel Joseph, Frank L. Howard, William McLaughlin, Homer Walters, Tommy Young, Harry (Chic) Howard, and others too numerous to mention.

Weaver Next On List
If Hamilton should decline nomination for another term as Chief Bachelor, rumor has it that Earl Weaver, deputy sheriff and one of the most affirmed members of the organization, will be asked to don the gown. Morris Boggs would be his right bower, with Sam Joseph and Phil Welmer (Damon and Pythias) as chief keepers of the door.

A good many of the "men about town" have abandoned the ranks of the Alliance since the last organization meeting in 1932. Some of them, who swore in 1932 that they would remain true, yea true, to the Alliance and not to a wife, have tramped up the aisle. Among them are Vattier Courtright, Paul Hohen Schleyer, Robert Maloney, George Groom, Car and Don Mason and Henry Joseph. The Alliance during the intervening eight years has suffered, too, from the refusal of many of the young fellows who became eligible during nerheim Line by crossing the ice of Viborg Bay.

Attempts of this nature resulted in heavy Russian casualties when Finnish bombing planes and artillery opened up on the Red army troops, smashing the ice and plunging the men into the frigid waters.

Nevertheless, according to advices received here, the Russians now are massing troops and artillery reinforcements at the western-most point of the front to support an anticipated drive across the ice.

All indications are that this maneuver will be tried by the Russians on a major scale in the immediate future and the Finns are rushing preparations to meet it.

Although there was no particular change in the situation on the Karelian Front this morning, Finnish authorities admitted the situation was grave in view of the violence of the Soviet onslaughts.

But it was claimed that the Finns have prevented any Soviet advances into the new, second-line Finnish positions. Likewise it was stated the Russians have so far been unable to move their artillery over the ice of Viborg Bay.

Officials said the Russian strategy is to outflank the Mannerheim Line at Viborg from the West and then "roll up the entire front."

Belief was expressed in Helsinki that the Russians have lost 100,000 men during their month-long offensive against the Mannerheim Line alone.

To meet the Russian drive against Viborg, the Finnish high command reinforced its troops defending the city.

Reports from the Far North indicated that the Russian drive in the Nautsi Region was forcing the Finns backward and had compelled them to evacuate the village of Jordafoss, which was completely wrecked before it was abandoned to the advancing Soviets.

Latest reports indicated that the Finns have withdrawn from the town of Nautsi, about 70 miles south of Petsamo, to take up more strongly fortified positions to the rear.

Nautsi Wrecked

At Nautsi the Finns also left only charred and wrecked buildings to the Russians. It was expected that the Soviets will meet stubborn resistance when they attack the new Finnish defenses farther South.

VIC TO RETIRE, FRIENDS IN OHIO CAPITAL BELIEVE

COLUMBUS, Feb. 29—Unless he executes an abrupt about face from his position of the moment, it was believed today that U. S. Sen. Vic Donahey will shortly announce his retirement from politics.

Then senator, who has been in public life for 40 years, serving two terms as state auditor, three consecutive terms as governor and one term as senator, indicated in Washington that his plans for the future would be revealed over the week end.

Although President Roosevelt himself is reported to have twice asked Donahey to seek re-election to the senate, persons in Columbus who are very close to Donahey and in a position to know what he is thinking, firmly expect him to refuse to run again.

They said today that the red tape of the senate and the continual political pressure to which members are subjected by groups seeking to further their own interests, do not agree with the independent temperament of "Hon. Vic."

He wants to return to his family and the peace and quiet of his Indian Lake retreat, they added, and unless some unexpected development occurs within the next few days to cause him to change his mind, he will not be a candidate again.

gust, 1939 with the expectancy that this money would last until March, 1940. In December, however, it was found that that fund had been dissipated on relief needs and another note issue of $7,000 was offered. A further shortage for the month of February necessitated the transfer of $7,465 from the General Fund to the Relief Fund.

Faced with the note retirement date of March 1, the county auditor's office had decided to apply the Relief Fund balance of $8,100 plus the $7,726 which the county received Thursday from the state as its share of the distribution of the 65/100 percent public utilities excise tax, totaling $15,826, to retire the $13,357 of outstanding notes. This would have left a balance of $2,469 with the prospect of repaying the $7,000 notes in August.

Transfers Loomed

To repay the $7,000 note issue all funds that will be available to the county from the state distribution of the beer, malt and admission tax through August will have to be used for that purpose. The relief fund would then have had to be carried from transfers from the general fund. It was intimated by the auditor's office that a policy of economy would have to be instituted since a continuous policy of transfers would have dwindled that fund to the extent that the regular functions of county finance would be jeopardized.

The county draws an approximate average of $900 per month from the beer, malt and admission tax which is to be diverted to relief purposes. The application of the money for eight months, through August, would retire the $7,000 note issue leaving the relief fund in complete depletion.

The bolstering force which changed the picture was the arrival of the $8,159 from the one percent public utilities excise tax. In 1935 the legislature passed House Bill 501 which provided the one percent tax. Money was not collected under this tax until 1939 for distribution in 1940. The funds thus distributed are to be used in retirement of notes or bonds which were issued in anticipation of the distribution.

Since no such notes and bonds were distributed in anticipation of the one percent tax by the county the money is to be diverted to the Relief Fund bolstering it with the unlooked for $8,159. With an expected lightening of the relief load during the spring and summer relief operations can be maintained on that sum without throwing the General Fund into jeopardy.

A bill of $2,335 was sent by the county to the city as its share of the relief costs. Where this money will be obtained will be a question that will face the City Council at its next meeting since the relief funds have long since been exhausted and collections of the city's General Fund have been lagging.

Bachelors' Union Bobs Up

Field Fertile One

The field of bachelors remains a fertile one, despite the inroads of the marriage vows, and herein are a few of the most eligible, barring, of course, those already mentioned. Some of the young fellows mentioned—hereafter are on the verge of stepping off the brink of Independence and into the ranks of those who can no longer be classified as members of the Amalgamated Protective Alliance of Circleville Bachelors.

A good place to start on any list would be in the Courthouse where are found Ned Dresbach, Robert Campbell, the aforesaid Mr. Weaver, Robert Adkins (but not for long) and George William Groom. All of these fellows (barring sudden changes in tenure of office) have pretty good jobs, so the young ladies who seek suitors could do much worse than enter yon Courthouse.

Many May be Plucked

But it isn't necessary to go to the Courthouse. My no! Here are some more of the eligibles, John and George Ammer, Blenn D. Bales, Tom Brunner, Eddie Clark, John Clifton, Dick Cockerill, Earl Hussey, Arthur McGran, George (Mellow) Davis, Charles Diehlman, Jr., Durward Dowden, the banker, George Lutz, the barrister, Earl A. Smith, Julius and Leon Gordon, Paul Wallace and Dean White, (don't overlook this pair, girls), McClure Hughes, Bill (Caravan) Kellstadt, Joe and Pat Kirwin.

Then, to go a little farther into the list, are Lawrence Lane, Carl Yale, Johnny Mader, George Myers, Dick Melson and Carl Purcell, the basketball pair, Carl, Robert, Bertie and Arthur Palm, Earl Pearce, Ned Plum, Hubert Puckett, Cummings Robinson and Ludwig, Edwin and Hilarie Haacker.

Among other eligibles are Paul Brown, (not so permanent, maybe), George Dudley Courtwright, Paul Smith, Elliott Moore, Eddie Rothman, Robert Shadley, Dr. J. J. Baker, Glenn Skinner, Fred and Eugene Smith, and Judson Lanman, who runs a high school.

There, lassies, are but just a few. It'll be interesting to observe just how many of you take advantage of your opportunity.

military supplies in the United States. However, there was a "joker" in the house-approved bill that will, if the senate okays it, permit the two embattled governments to purchase airplanes that can be used in the struggle against their aggressors.

The house measure was amended to permit sale of commercial airplanes to the Finns and Chinese. And commercial airplanes, through the installation of machine guns and bomb racks, can be turned into military airplanes almost overnight.

Final house action on the loan bill was spurred by members' exhortations that the Russian armies were smashing the gallant and stubborn Finnish resistance on the Karelian Isthmus and that speed was essential if the U. S. loan was to do the little Baltic republic any good.

Prices in Moscow have soared, reliable sources were quoted as confirming, and food lines are the largest in years.

While there is no lack of bread, other foodstuffs are scarce and vodka is almost unobtainable.

Several reasons were given in the dispatch for the cord-on—the chief one being that Moscow authorities do not want the peasants to find out what conditions are.

There is such a shortage of fodder in the rural districts that peasants are compelled to feed black bread to the cattle, the Reuters account went on.

Once again denying reports that Nazi Germany plans a new "peace offensive," Wilhelmstrasse spokesmen emphasized that Welles himself had requested audiences in Berlin "for informative purposes only."

As a result, it was said, his mission falls outside the usual category of state visits, obviating the necessity for special "trimmings" during Germany's reception except for private courtesies such as the foreign office dinner planned by Foreign Minister Jochim Von Ribbentrop or a luncheon call on Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering at his country estate of Schorfheide.

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Army Engineers Consider
Floodwater Plan, But

BENEFIT LACK CITED

Studies Of Control To Go
On Through, Colonel
Marks Says

A move by Ohio interests to divert floodwaters of the Scioto River into the Sandusky River watershed was blasted Thursday in a report from the War Department division engineer in charge of the Ohio River division.

The report declared that the proposal had been thoroughly studied and that it is "unfavorable to participation by the United States in any improvement for the flood control measures for which the War Department is responsible."

The principal grounds on which the adverse conclusions are based are the lack of sufficient benefits from the prosecution of a flood control project involving diversion of flood waters from the Scioto River into the Sandusky River watershed to justify the expenditure involved. Independent studies for flood control on each of the Sandusky and Scioto watersheds are being continued, however, the War Department declared.

"You are further notified," the report continued, "that all interested parties have the privilege of an appeal from this conclusion to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, a permanent body sitting at Washington, D. C., to which all examination and survey reports of this character are referred. Parties desiring to do so may be heard on appeal by the Board, either orally or in writing."

The report was written by E. H. Marks, colonel, corps of engineers, senior member of the board.

PETTENGILL

"The Gentleman from Indiana"

DON'T MISS THE BOAT!

The nomination or election of your candidate for President, or my candidate won't pay the national debt. It will not automatically cure unemployment either of idle dollars or idle men. It will not balance the budget. It will not stop deficits. It will not reduce taxes. No President, without strong support, can do any of these things.

Nevertheless, our eyes are glued on the Presidential race. One candidate will be named in June and another in July. By that time nominations of nearly all of thirty-four Senate seats and four hundred thirty-five House seats will have been made. Primary elections with respect to them will begin within a few weeks and be practically over by mid-summer. What are we doing about these vitally important nominations?

Reflect that PETTENGILL, the truly important branch of the federal government is Congress. It was so intended when the Constitution was written, and it is equally true today. The power to enact laws is a greater power than to execute them. The President cannot execute laws which Congress has not passed. An ambitious President can do little harm as long as we have a strong Congress, and a strong President can do little good with a weak Congress.

The importance of nominating and electing strong men to the House and Senate has increased greatly in the past few years. In the first place we no longer have a predictable Supreme Court of the United States. Principles upon which American business has been done, and American property protected for decades, can no longer be taken for granted in the highest court of the land. Neither Congress nor the people therefore can "pass the buck" to the Supreme Court. In a way that may be a good thing provided we recognize it.

In addition under the new interpretation of the power to regulate interstate commerce now reaching down to the employment of labor, strikes, wages and hours, Congress today has power and responsibility greater than it has ever been called upon to exercise. By virtue of this new interpretation of the Interstate Commerce clause we have had, in effect, an unwritten amendment to the Constitution. That new power and responsibility attaches not only to Congress as a body, but to each individual member. It also attaches to you and me who nominate and elect them.

No President can balance the budget. He can, if he chooses, recommend that it be done. But that is all. Only Congress can cut the suit of appropriations to the cloth of taxes. If the billions of dollars now lying idle in the banks are to go to work in putting men to work, they must be ment, on the one hand, and on the other, those who want to exchange it for national socialism. The Congressmen and Senators of both parties who have demonstrated their fidelity to the American way of life should be rewarded for their courage, and those of both parties who believe in a Nazi or Communist America should be punished for their crimes.

GARNER MAY TRAVEL TO CHICAGO FOR ADDRESS

CHICAGO Feb. 29.—Vice President Garner, a candidate in the Illinois preferential presidential primary April 9, may come to Chicago within five weeks to speak, it was revealed today by Julius Smietanka, manager of the Garner forces in the state.

Negotiations regarding a Chicago appearance by the vice president are under way, Smietanka said. Since he announced himself as a presidential candidate, Mr. Garner has had little to say publicly.

Smietanka also declared the vice president's backers welcomed President Roosevelt's appearance in the Illinois primary, seeing the contest as a test at the polls of the third term question.

RECEIPTS FROM COURT TOURNEY PASS LAST YEAR

Manager Higley Submits His Financial Report, Showing Results Of Event

SNOW HURTS FIRST NIGHT

Need For Seat Building Cuts Balance By $56; Parking Problem Discussed

The Pickaway County basketball tournament, won last week at Atlanta by Ashville boys and Darby Township girls, was a financial success, the report of Earl A. Higley, Ashville superintendent who was tournament manager, discloses. Many persons had thought, Mr. Higley said, that because the tournament was conducted in a part of the county remote from the county seat and the eastern part of the county that attendance would fall off, but his figures discount this belief.

Total receipts from the tournament this year amounted to $1,059.10, Mrs. Higley disclosed, compared with $1,058.30 a year ago when the competition was conducted in the Circleville Athletic Club gymnasium. But for heavy snows the first night the record would have been much higher, the drifting snow threatening to force postponement of the opening session. Receipts on opening night this year totaled only $241.90 including 150 season tickets, compared with $422.25 last year on the first night. However, other sessions were successes. The second session brought in $209.80 with 28 season tickets, compared with $111.45 a year ago; third session, $155.40, last year $132.80; fourth session, $202, compared with $160.80 last year, and fifth session, $200 compared with $231 last year.

$125 Rent Paid

The county schools paid $125 as rent for the Atlanta gymnasium, the same price that it paid last year, but the Circleville Chamber of Commerce assumed a $50 obligation, the difference between the price the tournament would pay and the price that the Athletic Club would accept.

Officials cost $125 this year, the same as last. One item of expense was added, the schools finding it necessary to build some seats which cost $50 and boosting total expenses to $601.83, compared with $583.85 last year. The balance left in the tournament treasury is $454.27 compared with $474.45 last year.

Mr. Higley declared that 10 men ran the tournament this year while last year it required 15. He discussed the parking problem, too, declaring that the problem took care of itself and that "no one was humiliated by being dragged into court to pay $2 fines for alley parking as they have in the past."

TWO ARMED MEN FLEE WITH SUM FROM OHIO BANK

CINCINNATI, Feb. 29 — The two armed bandits who held up and robbed the suburban Elmwood Place National Bank and fled with $6,100 after locking two employees in a vault today apparently had made good their escape.

Federal agents joined the hunt as funds of the bank were federally insured. However, despite a road blockade on all routes leading from Cincinnati by city, county and state officers, the bandits, unmasked and about 35 years old, were not apprehended.

The employees locked in the vault freed themselves by means of a safety catch inside.

DARBY TOWNSHIP WATER SUPPLY BEING TESTED

Mrs. Minnie Ridgeway, Darby Township, was removed to a Columbus hospital Wednesday afternoon after her illness had been diagnosed as typhoid fever. Dr. A. D. Blackburn, county health commissioner, sent water samples from the wells in the neighborhood of the Ridgeway home, one mile south of Derby on the Derby-Darbyville Pike, to the state department of health for analysis. This marked the first typhoid case in the county in over a year, Dr. Blackburn said.

AT THE CLIFTONA

One of the greatest "all-name" casts since "Dinner at Eight" and "Grand Hotel" was assembled by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer for "Strange Cargo" story of a group of desperadoes who escape a South American penal colony. The picture, co-starring Clark Gable and Joan Crawford, opens Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre.

Gable is seen as Verne Andre, a convict who believes implicitly in his own physical strength carrying him through any emergency. Miss

Crawford is the cynical cafe entertainer, Julie. With them appear Ian Hunter as the mysterious figure, Cambreau, who influences the fates of all around him; Peter Lorre as the repulsive libere, Monsieur Pig; Paul Lukas as the wife-murderer, Hessler; Albert Dekker as the Cockney safe-cracker, Moll; J. Edward Bromberg as the fear-ridden killer, Flaubert; Eduardo Ciannelli as the demented Telez; Victor Varconi as the fisherman who must aid the survivors of the prison break; John Arledge as the weakling, Dufond; Frederic Worlock as the prison governor, Grid-eau; and Bernard Nedell as Marfeu.

SICK WITH HATE

THERE is too much reliance on hate as the motive to drive people in masses today, says Dr. Albert W. Beaven, head of an eastern divinity school. The Christian doctrine of cooperation and good will is sneered at.

So the cult of hate grows. It has become an epidemic disease. And this is no mere figure of speech, Dr. Beaven insists. Hate can become, and has become, as truly a disease as if it were a streptococcus infection.

In some way it is worse than streptococcus, because it affects people's minds and souls instead of their bodies. And yet, in some countries, spreading these hate germs is regarded today as a virtue.

All the more reason, then, why sane people in sane countries should spread the beneficial germs of good will and kindness.

HONEST WRITING

CONGRATULATIONS from one writing man to another! The fellow we're congratulating is a lad in the third grade of a school in Oklahoma.

The pupils in his class were asked to write an essay on the month of February, and here is the essay he wrote:

"February has a great many birthdays. My dog's is the sixth."

That lad, in all probability, wasn't trying to be funny at all. And it isn't likely that he had any grudge against Abraham Lincoln or George Washington. He was simply preoccupied with the birthday that meant most to him, which was his dog's. He was writing about life as he saw it, in complete sincerity, going straight to the point, stating the main fact and then stopping.

ITALY'S TOY CAR

THEY may have some of Rudy Nebb's "power pills" in Italy. At any rate, they say they have an automobile capable of traveling 137 miles on one gallon of gasoline. Its top speed is only 37.5 miles an hour, but they can go far before the gas gives out.

Its generous mileage is not the only remarkable thing about the new car. It is a two-seater, weighs only 280 pounds, and can be set in motion by a system of pedals (an improvement over cranking). The pedals may be used also to save gasoline or to get back home if the supply runs out.

The body of the car is so elastic that it does not require springs. This may be an aid to both safety and comfort.

It sounds more useful than the small German car promised a few years ago, which has not yet appeared in great numbers.

We'll keep on having wars as long as patriotism is merely loyalty to one country.

'ROUND CIRCLEVILLE ... Hour by Hour

Pages From the Diary of an Antiquated Reporter:

Up at the usual hour and giving particular attention to lengthening of day. Seems like it was only yesterday that I was getting up in darkness. Must be that Spring is just around the corner. Scanned the morning prints over a cup of coffee and found little of interest. Still plenty of fighting up in Finland and none on the western front. I think that all involved in the European war await proposals for any kind of peace that will be face saving. Even the war lords do not care as much of war as they once did. Its effects are too far reaching and too lasting.

Pleased to learn that we will loan a few millions to Finland and more millions to China. Both nations are being kicked around by bullies and merit some support out of us since we are proverbial champions of under dogs. And, too, what are the few millions we will send overseas compared with the money we loaned in Europe during and after the world war which is still owed us and probably never will be repaid unless the debtor nations wish to establish new credit.

Visited city hall and inspected the jail which is receiving a fresh coat of paint. My, what a dump is that jail. I'll say that anyone put in it is being punished. Well, that is why folk are sent to jail, isn't it? It is a good thing that the women folk of the ville have not viewed that jail or a new one would be in process of erection right now. I'm not particularly concerned because I am old fashioned in my ideas about not petting criminals. I have seen jails in which imprisonment would be almost a pleasure. And I doubted their effect as punishment. Our jail is different. No one would be anxious to return there as a guest.

CONGRESSMAN AIDS FAMILY

WASHINGTON—One of the hottest congressional elections in the 1934 campaign was the contest in the Tenth Wisconsin District between Representative Hubert Peavey and State Senator Bernard J. Gehrman. Principal issue of the battle was nepotism.

In scores of speeches Gehrman blasted Peavey for having his wife on the congressional payroll as his secretary.

"There are hundreds of competent young people in our district able and deserving to fill this job," Gehrman thundered. "It is not right that my opponent should give it to his wife when there are so many in need of work and the taxpayers pay him $10,000 a year to represent them."

The voters felt the same way, retiring Peavey and sending Gehrman to Washington in his place. But in the six years that have elapsed since then, Gehrman's crusading ardor has undergone a marked change.

He who once so righteously denounced the gravy bowl now is in it up to his elbows. Here's his nepotism roster:

Arthur Gehrman, son, clerk in the Farm Security Administration office at Neillsville, Wis., $1,440.

Joseph Gehrman, son, CCC camp foreman at Baraboo, Wis., $1,740.

Victor Gehrman, son, clerk in Indian Division of the CCC at Cass Lake, Minn., $1,560.

Dorothy Gehrman, daughter, until recently PWA clerk in Chicago, $1,440.

Total gravy haul of the Gehrman family, including the Congressman's $10,000 salary—$16,180 a year.

ANTI-TOBACCO LECTURE

Pet aversion of bachelor Justice James C. McReynolds is tobacco in all forms. This antipathy cost a newsreel cameraman a brisk lecture on the Justice's recent 78th birthday.

The photographers were making shots of him coming jauntily out of his fashionable 16th Street apartment house when the newsreel man, chewing a cigar stub, apologetically spoke up: "Mr. Justice, would you mind doing that over? I'm sorry to have to trouble you, sir, but I've just discovered that my camera was out of focus."

McReynolds complied, then scowled and snapped, "Young man, let this be a lesson to you. If you hadn't been chewing on that filthy weed and had been paying attention to your business you would have got your picture the first time."

POLITICAL BITS

Vandenberg managers are quietly following Hoover's strategy and have sent word to state lieutenants to work for un-instructed delegations. . . . In his recent Chicago speech Republican Floor Leader Joe Martin mentioned the names of the Illinois GOP Congressmen. Biggest applause was accorded that of Noah M. Mason when Martin added after his name, "A good patriotic member of the Dies committee" . . . There is a better than even chance that GOP National Chairman John Hamilton will not be a member of the Kansas convention delegation. Certain to head it is Alf Landon.

"The average woman," says a lecturer, "is better informed politically than her husband." There they go again, sowing family discord.

LAFF-A-DAY

"I think I'll surprise my husband and cook dinner tonight, Jeeves. Where is the kitchen?"

DIET AND HEALTH

Is There a Chemistry of Human Intelligence?

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Are there any chemical or physical changes in the brain during active functions? In other words, is there a chemistry of intelligence?

There is a great deal of data but we would not like to come to any definite conclusions. The brain requires oxygen, sugar and water. Disturbance in the water balance of the brain is disastrous, resulting in decreased mental efficiency, and, when the balance is profoundly upset, coma and delirium.

The water balance of the brain is intimately bound up with the acid-base equilibrium. The epileptic brain is an alkaline brain. The diabetic brain is an acid brain and, if not balanced by proper treatment, results in retarded mentation and stupor.

The brain cannot function at all without oxygen. Bacteria, 25,000 feet or more find their mental reaction so impaired that they cannot make observations.

"Are our thoughts also at the bottom electric?" asks Dr. Albert Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

P. Mathews, professor of biochemistry at the University of Cincinnati. "Whenever a nerve impulse sweeps over a nerve it is accompanied by an electrical disturbance. When the nerve impulses play back and forth over the commissures of the brain, they are accompanied by this pale lightning of the negative variation. Is that pale lightning what we recognize as consciousness?"

Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever

Has Rocky Mountain spotted fever ever appeared in the eastern states?

Yes. There have been reports this year from Tennessee and Massachusetts. The disease is spread by infected ticks, and ticks have been found to be very prevalent around Cape Cod. Summer residents find ticks on themselves and on their dogs.

The importance of protecting the hands when removing ticks cannot be overestimated; likewise protect the body, particularly the legs, when traveling through grass or brush.

The tick season in the eastern United States extends from the first warm days of spring to mid-summer. In Tennessee and other of the southern states, a number of cases were reported in 1933. In the southern states also endemic typhus fever is reported.

In the case of Rocky Mountain spotted fever, small rodents act as reservoirs and the disease is transmitted through the bites of infected ticks. In the case of endemic typhus fever, the animal reservoir is the rat and the insect vector the rat flea.

Both diseases have a sudden onset, with chills and headaches, rapidly rising temperature and a rash three to five days after onset.

Treatment has been tried by the use of sulfanilamide.

CHAPTER FORTY-TWO

THE NEXT month was a busy one for everyone in Cecelia's newly formed family circle. Cissie was like a proud mother hen clucking over her two chicks as she watched their amazing radio careers unfold.

"I wouldn't have missed all this for the world," she told Romany one day in the studio, watching the first televised broadcast she had ever seen.

In her South Shore drive apartment, she had engineers install the best television reception equipment money could buy. And she invited all her friends to drop in for tea and watch and listen to her lovely niece as she came over the air.

Cissie was as unselfishly devoted to Charlotte as to Romany. At first Cholly was overwhelmed with the idea of being introduced to Chicago society as Cecelia Harlowe's ward. But she soon grew accustomed to her new role and found herself having a marvelous time playing Cinderella. Much to her amazement, she learned that a lot of people in the upper brackets were quite as human and unaffected as anyone else. And she began seriously to doubt that a lot of ideas she had entertained regarding the rich were entirely sound. For instance: There was Dover. Would he be any different if he had been brought up on a farm than with a silver spoon in his mouth? If you were a real person, did it matter whether you were rich or poor?

A few days before Christmas, Cecelia asked Romany:

"Do you know how to drive a car, dear? If you don't, you'd better take some lessons."

"Yes, I know how to drive. But why?" Romany looked puzzled.

"Because," Cissie looked up from the magazine she was reading in her boudoir—"I bought one for you today. And I can't wait till Christmas to give it to you."

"Oh!" Romany jumped up. "Aunt Cissie, you shouldn't have done it!" Cissie kissed her affectionately.

"Don't you think I know how much money you've been sending home to your father and mother, and how you won't buy anything but annuities for yourself. I'll just have to buy the luxuries for you. Besides, I think you should have a car in your position. You seem to forget you're a famous young lady now."

Romany buried her head in her aunt's lap.

"Oh,"—her voice caught—"everybody is so good and so many lovely things are happening to me. I ought to be the happiest girl in the world."

Cissie raised her head, looking into her eyes.

"But you're not happy, dear. Not quite," she said gently. "Could you tell me about it? I'd like to know. I'm rather fond of you, you know."

Romany stirred uneasily, her green eyes troubled.

"It's something I can't quite explain, Aunt Cissie. Not even to myself. I wish I could."

"Is it about Brent Nelson?" Cecelia asked, stroking her hair. "Is it that you aren't sure you love him, and want to marry him?"

"That's part of it," Romany sighed. "I know I'm very fond of him, and he has begged me to marry him. I think I'm crazy not to. But I just don't feel—"

When she stopped, Cissie nodded, smiling.

"You just don't feel! Yes, I know, darling. Well, if you're not sure, be very careful. It would be terrible if you married someone you didn't

"But you're not happy, dear. Not quite," said Cissie.

love. I've seen so much of marriage for social position, and for money, I couldn't bear to see you marry and have your home smashed on the rocks. I guess I'm not very modern."

"That's the way I feel," Romany held tightly to her aunt's hand, as if she needed something to cling to. "I thought once that I wasn't the sort of person who would ever really fall in love. That if I married it would be because I met someone who would be good to me and congenial. But now I'm not sure."

Cecelia said gently: "Is there someone else, Romany, besides Brent? Someone you met at the university, perhaps?"

As if in answer to her aunt's thoughts, Romany said: "There's—Baxter Tree. The writer I told you about. I'm very fond of him. I do miss him terribly. But I guess he's crossed me off his list. He really wasn't away for Thanksgiving. I doubt if he had the fare to go home. He's so poor."

Cissie watched Romany's face closely.

"But—he's just a friend, isn't he? You couldn't be in love with him."

"Oh, no," Romany turned away. "There's never been any romance between Bax and me. But—she hesitated—"he did kiss me down by the lake the night I went to his apartment to find out why he hadn't come to see us."

Aunt Cissie was highly amused. "He kissed you! Did he act as though he meant it? Or just as though he thought it might be expected of him and he'd better get it over with?"

Romany smiled wistfully.

"Very much as though he meant it the first time. But later, when I wanted him to kiss me again, he just looked at me and said no, he wouldn't like to get the habit."

"You brazen thing!" Cissie laughed. "I can't imagine your going around asking men to kiss you."

"I can't either," Romany said, in a low voice. "And I'll know better next time. But he was so discouraged and unhappy. I felt so sorry for him, it just about broke my heart."

"Oh," said Cecelia, "so that's it!"

"What?" Romany looked up questioningly.

"Pity, my darling, is akin to love. Didn't anyone ever tell you that? And when a woman feels like kissing away a man's aches and pains, it looks pretty serious to me."

Cissie said it teasingly. But she decided Baxter Mason Tree would come to her Christmas house party for lonesome and homeless radio performers if she had to go and bring him herself. She said a little later:

"What is Bax's show like? Is he clever?"

Romany said fervently: "He writes out of this world, Aunt Cissie! If 'Paradise Is Here' gets on the air, it will make radio history. I've some of the scripts, I think about ten of them, here. Would you like to read them when you aren't busy?"

"I'd love it!" enthused Cecelia. "I'm getting to be quite a radio dramatic show addict. I find myself hurrying home for fear Lizzie Centassel will fall off the cliff the author left her on the day before and I'll miss it."

Romany took Bax's scripts to Aunt Cissie before she went to her own room to bed. Cissie kissed her tenderly.

"Good night, baby. I hope your starring genius is as entertaining as you think he is. We'll invade his attic and talk some sense into him some of these days if he spurns us much longer."

"You'd better stay away from him," Romany warned her, smiling. "Brent asked me today if I'd mind if he invited you to the opera with him next week when I was broadcasting. You're dangerous competition, Cecelia darling."

In the lobby of Interstate the next morning, Romany met Bob Lane. He held out his hand, grinning.

"Well, Miss Television, I haven't seen you in a long time. But I've been reading and hearing things."

"Not Miss Television," Romany smiled. "I've withdrawn from the contest."

"You'd have won it," Lane said with assurance. "I hear the votes are pouring in for your girl friend, Miss O'Neil."

"Isn't it marvelous?" Romany said happily.

"She's a sensation," Bob nodded. "But I knew she would be when I saw her and heard her play. By the way, Baxter Tree was in to see me today. He's leaving for New York, he tells me."

"Oh!" Romany's heart sank. "When? Do you know?"

"Next week. The day after Christmas, he says. I've done everything I can, but I don't seem to have any luck getting a break for him. He's got the best show in town, too. This radio is a crazy business!"

Visit To Orchard House Brings Tourist A Gift

Mrs. W. Emerson Downing of East Main Street has received an unusual and interesting gift, because of a visit to "Orchard House" in Concord, Mass., which was the home of Louisa M. Alcott, beloved writer of girls' books. While on a trip to the East several years ago, Mrs. Downing first visited the historical house making her second visit last summer while a member of the artists colony at Gloucester.

Telling Miss Rebekah Briggs, the caretaker, of her interest in Miss Alcott and her books, Mrs. Downing was asked for her card and told that she would hear from her later.

A few days ago the following letter was received by Mrs. Downing:

My Dear Mrs. Downing: I remember that you visited the "Orchard House" and how you told me of your love for Louisa Alcott and her books, and how I remember thinking you were just the one that would appreciate having a little piece of one of Louisa's gowns.

A few years ago Mrs. Pratt (Demmi's widow) gave me a good large piece of one of Louisa's gowns, saying that I might like giving, once in a while, a piece to a devoted lover of Louisa and her books. So the past few summers I have done so. Maybe to two guests in a season. (The house is open only six months of the year.)

I have your card and fully intended sending this to you weeks ago but went away on a long vacation, so it did not get done. Now I am again at home and here it is. I hope you will like having it.

Mrs. Pratt was a very dear friend of mine and has now been gone three years. I still miss her so very much. I have been at the "Orchard House" nineteen years and she was chairman of the house committee at the time she died and visited the house every week.

Most sincerely, Rebekah Briggs

February 21, 1940

Inclosed in the letter was a piece of silk from one of Miss Alcott's gowns, an interesting memento which Mrs. Downing plans to frame and have hung in the Circleville Public Library.

Mrs. Downing in speaking of "Orchard House" mentioned it as the locale of "Little Women" and May Alcott was the "Amy" of the book.

debut on Thursday, March 7, at 9:30 p. m. over the NBC-Red network.

Through dramatic device Vallee will transmute each week into a character notable in history, but will retain his own identity throughout the show. Comedy relief will be furnished by Slapsy Maxie Rosenbloom, who will also play himself.

The "fantasy musical comedy" idea is the result of the "Burbank" formula suggested by Rudy Vallee. The historical angle was chosen because in radio where no costumes are necessary Producer Vic Knight and agency execs felt that use of premise which everyone is familiar with, would have the greatest audience appeal. First theme will be based on Christopher Columbus. Each week a different

Hollywood celebrity will be gueststar on the show and the program's policy will be to cast the guest artists to fit the story rather than picking the story to fit the artist.

The music will be furnished by a 25 piece orchestra and a chorus of 15 voices with Ken Darby, (who did special arrangements for the "Wizard of Oz" and "Pinocchio") and Elliott Daniels heading the musical contingent.

LANNY ROSS MEMORY TRIP

The story of George Hays, a pilot, whose airplane was forced down somewhere in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, will be dramatized on Lanny Ross' trip down Memory Lane on Tuesday, March 5, 2 p. m. over CBS, when the tenor sings "Wishing," in memory of the night's vigil spent by Hays when rescue seemed impossible.

GIRL ALONE PROGRAM

On Wednesday, March 6, at 5 p. m. over the NBC-Red network, "Girl Alone" will combine radio drama, with real action by broadcasting the show from an American Airlines transport plane.

Followers of "Girl Alone" are familiar with Stormy Wilson, the blind aviatrix played by June Travis. Contemplating a journey to South America, Stormy must first test her nerve before embarking on the long flight. The Pilot of the plane will have an actual role in the script.

Mark this date on your calendar 'cause there should be plenty of action both "on the air" and "in the air."

Obituary

OBITUARY

David S. Dennis, son of Henry and Clariss A. Smith Dennis was born February 18, 1885, and passed away February 22, 1940, aged 55 years and four days.

He was united in marriage to Eliza A. Dennis October 11, 1892. To this union were born one daughter, Mrs. Edna Liston, wife of Earl Liston, and one son, five grandchildren survive him. He has but one brother living, C. Dennis of Erie, Pa. Four brothers have gone before, David, Joseph, Grant, and Smith. Also three sisters, Emma, wife of Mr. Henry S. Dennis, Mrs. Maggie, wife of Judge Worth Dick of Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Clara Robinson, wife of William Robinson. All have passed away.

He loved his home. He was devoted to his family, and especially to his grandchildren, and often said he was so sorry to leave them. He was always friendly with his neighbors and friends of which he had many. A noble man at all times. It was wonderful to truthfully say he was a real man. But, a life journey has ended, a life volume has been written. A life record has been concluded and been placed in the Omnipotent archives of eternity.

Another loved one has pushed the golden gates ajar and entered in rest. No one hears the door that opens, so gently comes the call; like loosened leaves of roses one by one our loved ones fall.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to the friends and neighbors for their kindness, sympathy and all floral offerings extended during the illness and death of our beloved father.

ARMSTRONG AND GARCIA AWAIT BELL TO START

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 29—California's two world champions, Cefterio Garcia of the middleweights and Henry Armstrong of the welterweights, rested today preparatory to their ten-round world's championship battle tomorrow night which will settle whether a "good little man can whip a good big man" or vice versa.

The referee for the big bout was the one question that remained unanswered today, but names most prominently mentioned were George Blake and Abe Roth.

With the fight only 24 hours away Promoter Charley MacDonald predicted that with fair weather a new gate record would be set. Gilmore stadium will accommodate 41,000 people.

While the advance sale is nearly twice that which promoters had for Joe Louis and Jack Roper, who drew $89,000 last April, there were still good seats available from the $2 reserved to the $10 ringside.

Two special trains are to arrive here tomorrow from San Francisco with sports fans killing two birds with one stone to see the fight and the running of the $100,000 handicap on Saturday.

TURTLE PROPHET SAYS WINTER WEATHER AT END

WASHINGTON, C. H., Feb. 29 —The backbone of the winter is broken and spring is just around the corner, if we take our weather forecasting from the turtleman weather prophet.

A dry fall and an unusually cold winter was prophesied early last autumn by this particular turtle catcher. He based his forecast on the fact that the turtles were far back in muskrat dens in creek banks.

The latest prediction made by the prophet is that there will be no more severe weather this winter because the turtles are coming out now.

1940 AUTO TAG SALE TO START

Wallace Appoints Deputy Registrars To Serve In City, County

Deputy registrars to handle the sale of Ohio's 1940 white-on-dark-blue auto license tags were appointed Thursday by Cylon Wallace, state registrar of motor vehicles.

The plates go on sale Friday and may be displayed on or after March 10. Wallace said that the plates are the reverse color of those for 1939.

Registrars in Pickaway County include A. J. Lyle for Circleville, Clyde Brinker for Ashville, Edward Hudson for Commercial Point, Anabel Echard for New Holland and Mrs. D. H. Marcy for Williamsport. Changes were made in New Holland, Commercial Point and Williamsport.

Nearly 75,000 sets of special plates, bearing one or two letters and numbers lower than 50, have been issued during the last month by those making special requests for them, Wallace said. He estimated the cost of issuing the special tags at $15,000.

However, none of the more than 2,000,000 sets issued will have more than five digits, he added, making them among the easiest in the nation to identify.

CINCINNATI ORDERED TO PROCEED WITH HOUSING

COLUMBUS, Feb. 29 — City Manager C. O. Sherill, of Cincinnati, today was under court order to sign a $13,500,000 contract between the United States Housing Authority and the Cincinnati Metropolitan Housing Authority. Upon the request of Cincinnati City Solicitor John D. Ellis, the state supreme court issued a writ of mandamus compelling Sherill to sign the contract although he contended the loan was neither for "low rent housing" or "slum clearance" as stipulated.

Of the total sum, $7,500,000 would be spent for vacant land housing projects, $1,500,000 for dwelling units in Laurel Hills, for occupation by negro families and the balance for negro slum clearance in Cincinnati's West End.
